Kellman, Natasha Lvovich, 2021-09-30 Though it might seem as modern as Samuel Beckett Joseph Conrad and Vladimir Nabokov translingual writing texts by authors using more than one language or a language other than their primary one has an ancient pedigree The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism aims to provide a comprehensive overview of translingual literature in a wide variety of languages throughout the world from ancient to modern times The volume includes sections on translingual genres with chapters on memoir poetry fiction drama and cinema ancient medieval and modern translingualism global perspectives chapters overseeing European African and Asian languages Combining chapters from lead specialists in the field this volume will be of interest to scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates interested in investigating the vibrant area of translingual literature Attracting scholars from a variety of disciplines this interdisciplinary and pioneering Handbook will advance current scholarship of the permutations of languages among authors throughout time Science and Affect in Contemporary Literature Shannon Lambert, 2024-12-12 Moving from the micro world of quantum physics to the macro scales of earth science and ecology this book considers how in contemporary literature affective experiences like desire suffering anxiety and joy shape scientific persons practices and products This book brings into dialogue close readings of scientific writing and contemporary literary works by authors like Jeanette Winterson Richard Powers Hanya Yanagihara Thalia Field and Jenny Offill Combining narrative and affect studies it uses formal strategies such as moving metaphor visceral or affective description plot level analogy contraction and rhythm to engage with western scientific epistemologies which still tends towards the impassive universal and objective While each chapter focuses on a different field or fields of science all foreground bodies human and nonhuman as a way of exploring knowledge production Through close readings the book argues that select scientific stories raise important questions about how knowledge is defined and who and what is invited into its processes of production

Hybrid Novels George Kowalik,2025-10-03 The phrase post postmodernism has appeared in Contemporary Literary Studies since the 20th century but what does it mean Scholars have defined the term in various often contradictory ways Existing studies also rarely centralise race an essential component in the transition from postmodern irony to post postmodern sincerity Hybrid Novels analyses post postmodernism s only consistency and certainty hybridity This speaks for a broader social issue concerning the ethics of categorisation and the conflicting labels imposed on subjectivity Hybrid Novels considers landmark American British novels by Percival Everett Jonathan Franzen Zadie Smith and David Foster Wallace published from 1996 to 2001 It positions these authors at the centre of the post postmodernism debate together for the first time This book suggests that 2010s autofiction further develops post postmodern tensions of irony and sincerity at the turn of the 21st century Major American Canadian novels by Sheila Heti Ben Lerner Teju Cole and Tao Lin are discussed published from 2010 to 2013 historical and cultural moments from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history

The Literary Mirroring of Aboriginal Australia and the Caribbean Dashiell Moore, 2025-05-15 The Literary Mirroring of Aboriginal Australia and the Caribbean challenges the structural opposition of indigeneity and creolisation through a historical and literary analysis of the connections between the First and Last of the New Worlds Australia and the Caribbean Dashiell Moore explores the continuities between indigenous and creole lifeworlds in the work of renowned Caribbean writers such as douard Glissant Wilson Harris Sylvia Wynter and Kamau Brathwaite and prominent Aboriginal Australian writers including Alexis Wright Ali Cobby Eckermann and Lionel Fogarty Common to these authors is their reimagining of the inter colonial other as a mirror image This image achieved through opacity and projection visualises in creative ways both the movement to indigenisation in post independence Caribbean literature and the inter indigenous encounters of Aboriginal Australian literature By upending the antipodean relationship of the Caribbean and Australia this groundbreaking study offers radically new perspectives on the world generated by literary relation John McGahern John

Singleton, 2023-11-17 John McGahern 1934 2006 believed that fiction could act as a window on the world Such windows however frame our fields of vision alter and shape our perspectives Far from being static the artist s perspective must continually evolve This book provides a literary analysis of John McGahern s artistic and poetic vision his ways of looking examining the shifting focus of this vision how and why it develops what effects such developments have on the work s forms and how these forms evolve at what times and in response to what stimuli This volume demonstrates that such developments mirror an analogous social expansion during the latter half of the twentieth century and argues that McGahern s literary spaces relate to his efforts to realise a more accommodating form to envelop the structureless society While the number of critical studies on McGahern has increased markedly in recent years research still tends to fall into the well established camps of social realism or literary aestheticism This text aims to explore the common ground between the material context and social worlds of each work and the hermeneutics of a traditional literary investigation It traverses such divides through close readings of McGahern s work with attention to the topopoetical production of images of the house the home and the family unit The book ultimately shows how attention to McGahern s literary spaces provides a greater understanding of the aesthetic vision and form of each novel and allows us to understand those aspects relative to the social cultural and political undercurrents of the works individually and collectively Derrida and Foucault Paul Rekret, 2017-09-20 Derrida and

Foucault offers a major contribution to the interpretation of these two highly influential thinkers By tracing the moments where Derrida and Foucault s arguments converge but also where they deviate this book fundamentally recasts our understanding not only of these two philosophers but of the political more broadly Organised thematically around questions of epistemology ethics and politics this is the only work to bring Derrida and Foucault s whole oeuvres into dialogue with one another This book frames a dialogue not only between their works of the 1960s and 1970s but also their works that deal with political questions around liberalism capitalism and democracy This book offers the first substantial critical assessment of Derrida and Foucault s political work and also situates these crucial thinkers in contemporary debates in political theory
