Textual Sources for the Study of Islam Andrew Rippin, Jan Knappert, 1990-10-15 This collection is distinguished by its wide range and the care which has clearly gone into the selection of texts for inclusion Attention has understandably been focused on what might be called the religious aspects of Islam such as scripture theology sects law ritual and mysticism but within those limits the texts chosen are marked by substantially of content by geographical chronological and social diversity and by an intelligent use of less well known authors An excellent starting point for a systematic and analytical examination of Islam G R Hawting Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies

The Transmission and Dynamics of the Textual Sources of Islam Nicolet Boekhoff-van der Voort, Kees Versteegh, Joas Wagemakers, 2011-09-05 For many Muslims the textual sources of Islam provide the guiding principles on which they base their beliefs These texts have also been studied by Western scholars of Islam for centuries Most of their work has focussed on the historicity of the texts often at the expense of the study of Muslims highly diverse interpretation and application of these sources in everyday life This volume provides new insights into the transmission of these sources primarily the Qur'an and the Hadith and combines this with the dynamics of these scriptures by paying close attention to how believers in the Muslim world as well as the West interpret and apply them As such this volume provides a fascinating overview of how the sources of Islam are dated debated and negotiated Contributors include Nicolet Boekhoff van der Voort Gregor Schoeler Maribel Fierro Fred Leemhuis Claude Gilliot Andreas G rke Jens Scheiner Michael Lecker Maher Jarrar Gerard Wiegers Uri Rubin Kees Versteegh Joas Wagemakers Herbert Berg Abdulkader Tayob Roel Meijer Martijn de Koning Carmen Becker and Ulrike Mitter

this authoritative text now in a single volume surveys Islamic history and thought from its formative period to the present day Widely updated with new chapters on intellectual thought and medieval development Islam and Biomedical Research Ethics Mehrunisha Suleman, 2020-07-07 This book is a contribution to the nascent discourse on global health and biomedical research ethics involving Muslim populations and Islamic contexts It presents a rich sociological account about the ways in which debates and questions involving Islam within the biomedical research context are negotiated a perspective which is currently lacking within the broader bioethics literature The book tackles some key understudied areas including role of faith in moral deliberations within biomedical research ethics the moral anxiety and frustration experienced by researchers when having to negotiate multiple moral sources and how the marginalisation of women the prejudice and abuse faced by groups such as sex workers and those from the LGBT community are encountered and negotiated in such contexts The volume provides a valuable resource for researchers and scholars in this area by providing a systematic review of ethical guidelines and a rich case based account of the ethical issues emerging in biomedical research in contexts where Islam and the religious moral commitments of Muslims are pertinent The book will be essential for those conducting research in low and middle income countries that have significant Muslim populations and for those in Muslim minority settings It will also appeal to researchers and scholars in religious studies social sciences philosophy anthropology and theology as well as the fields of biomedical ethics Islamic ethics and global health Arabic Textual Sources for the Crusades Alexander Mallett, 2024-03-11 Building upon previous volumes by the same editor this book contains studies of nine of the most important writers of Arabic language textual sources for the Crusades and the Frankish presence in the eastern Mediterranean in the period 1097-1291
