The Long Escape Jan Rehacek, 2009-03 A ten year old and his family embark on a heroic escape from the former East Bloc Communist country of Czechoslovakia to seek a new life in the West free of oppression Faced with unforeseen perils heavily armored borders three separate cultural changes and never knowing what the next day brings a family of four leave their entire lives behind and thrust themselves into situations with potentially devastating outcomes Join the Rehacek family as they struggle during a journey across multiple border crossings between Czechoslovakia Hungary Yugoslavia Austria and Germany as they seek freedom and prosperity Just imagine yourself standing in front of an open field covered with tall barbed wire fences machinegun operated control towers heavily armored guards with dogs and hidden mine fields and you must somehow cross to the other side with a wife a ten year old and a six year old Once you manage to cross from the Communist ruled Iron Curtain to the West alive and uninjured you have to live in a country that has a different culture different customs and everyone speaks a different language As you struggle along the political channels of immigration you wonder if the next day you and your family will have a bed to sleep upon and enough food to eat

The Long Hot Summer Mary Moody, 2006 In Au Revoir she ran away In Last Tango her world turned upside down Now her relationships are about to reach boiling point In the European summer of 2003 a deadly heat wave strikes France To Mary Moody living in her rural village in the south west of France it seems that the weather is merely imitating the stifling heat of her marriage which is on the verge of collapse following the events recounted in Last Tango in Toulouse But despite relentlessly hot days and an uncertain future Mary's new found passion for life cannot be suppressed It is not long before she is once again torn between her two desires for the independence of her life in France and for the love and continuity of her marriage and family life in Australia While Mary immerses herself in the pleasures of her second home the food and wine the markets her colourful circle of friends a shattering turn of events comes when she least expects it Au Revoir and Last Tango in Toulouse have become national bestsellers and made Mary Moody one of the best loved and most successful non fiction writers in Australia With all the warmth and candour we've come to expect The Long Hot Summer explores the minefield of relationships and changing desires set against the beautiful backdrop of rural France

The Long-lost Rachel Wild; Rachel Wild Peterson, 1905 Frontier Freedom Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-11 Journey through the untamed wilderness of the American frontier in this captivating exploration of its history people and legacy From the rugged mountain men who ventured into uncharted territories to the courageous pioneers who settled the land the frontier was a crucible that forged resilience self reliance and a deep appreciation for the beauty and power of nature Discover the stories of these pioneers their struggles and their triumphs as they carved out a new life in a wild and unforgiving land Uncover the complex relationship between Native American tribes and European settlers the clashes that occurred and the efforts to bridge the cultural divide Beyond the pioneers and homesteaders the frontier was home to a diverse cast of characters from miners and
