Feelings Katherine Shonfield, 2003-09-02 For the first time this book brings the insights methodologies and visions of film to the practice of architecture Walls Have Feelings poses unanswered questions from our immediate past crucial for the future of the city what was the cultural mindset leading to the triumph of Brutalism What is the urban and domestic impact of large scale office building Are there alternatives to the planners city of object and Why does your flat leak This book uniquely brings to bear questions of urgent cultural relevance on critical design decisions As such it is of as much importance to architects planners and students of design as to students of cultural history geography and all enthusiasts of cities and of film

The Poetics of Perspective James Elkins, 2018-10-18 Perspective has been a divided subject orphaned among various disciplines from philosophy to gardening In the first book to bring together recent thinking on perspective from such fields as art history literary theory aesthetics psychology and the history of mathematics James Elkins leads us to a new understanding of how we talk about pictures Elkins provides an abundantly illustrated history of the theory and practice of perspective Looking at key texts from the Renaissance to the present he traces a fundamental historical change that took place in the way in which perspective was conceptualized first a technique for constructing pictures it slowly became a metaphor for subjectivity That gradual transformation he observes has led to the rifts that today separate those who understand perspective as a historical or formal property of pictures from those who see it as a linguistic cognitive or epistemological metaphor Elkins considers how the principal concepts of perspective have been rewritten in work by Erwin Panofsky Hubert Damisch Martin Jay Paul Ricoeur Jacques Lacan Maurice Merleau Ponty and E H Gombrich The Poetics of Perspective illustrates that perspective is an unusual kind of subject it exists as a coherent idea but no one discipline offers an adequate exposition of it Rather than presenting perspective as a resonant metaphor for subjectivity a painter's tool without meaning a disused historical practice or a model for vision and representation Elkins proposes a comprehensive revaluation The perspective he describes is at once a series of specific pictorial decisions and a powerful figure for our knowledge of the world
