

Thanksgiving History

One day that fall, they sat down with some of the local Native Americans. The Wampanoag had gathered and shared their food. Because they thought the English might be preparing for war, the Wampanoag invited the English to join them for a meal. The next day, the English and the Wampanoag sat down to eat. The English had brought food with them, but the Wampanoag had brought food from the land. The English had brought food from the land, but the Wampanoag had brought food from the land.
