Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West s literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children s literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West s literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister

Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works

Where the Wild Books Are Jim Dwyer, 2010-04-01 As interest in environmental issues grows many writers of fiction have embraced themes that explore the connections between humans and the natural world Ecologically themed fiction ranges from profound philosophical meditations to action packed entertainments Where the Wild Books Are offers an overview of nearly 2 000 works of nature oriented fiction The author includes a discussion of the precursors and history of the genre and of its expansion since the 1970s He also considers its forms and themes as well as the subgenres into which it has evolved such as speculative fiction ecodefense animal stories mysteries ecofeminist novels cautionary tales and others A brief summary and critical commentary of each title is included Dwyer's scope is broad and covers fiction by Native American writers as well as ecofiction from writers around the world Far more than a mere listing of books Where the Wild Books Are is a lively introduction to a vast universe of engaging provocative writing It can be used to develop book collections or curricula It also serves as an introduction to one of the most fertile areas of contemporary fiction presenting books that will offer enjoyable reading and new insights into the vexing environmental questions of our time

San Francisco in Fiction David M. Fine, Paul Skenazy, 1995 In the beginning there was the bay the land the forty three hills the coastline down to Monterey the strip of mountains the quiet valley behind the vast ocean the hidden faults And with the landscape came the stories as Paul Skenazy and David Fine note in their introduction to this new anthology of essays San Francisco is as much a place in the mind as on the map if the terrain set the stage for the stories the stories have helped remake our perceptions of the space These twelve essays explore the relationship between place and prose between San Francisco the city and San Francisco the territory of fiction From the Gold Rush times of Mark Twain and Bret Harte through the Prohibition Era of Dashiell Hammett to the Beat days of Jack Kerouac and the present works of writers like Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan and Arturo Islas San Francisco has been blessed with great writers who have given life to the land in their fiction These essays engage the history and geography ethnic gender and class conflicts and stylistic range of the fiction They demonstrate how authors as various as Jack London Gertrude Atherton Frank Norris William Saroyan James D Houston Joan Didion and Wallace Stegner have re created and revised our understanding of this region

Gardening with a Wild Heart Judith Larner Lowry, 2007-03-19 Judith Lowry's voice and experiences make a rich matrix for essays that include discussions of wildflower gardening the ecology of native grasses wildland seed collecting principles of natural design and plant animal interactions This lyrical and articulate mix of the practical and the poetic combines personal story wildland ecology restoration gardening practices and native plant horticulture
