The "Man Christ Jesus" Stephen Oliver Stout, 2011-06-17 Does the Apostle Paul have any use for the person of Jesus presented in the Gospels Critical scholarship thinks not but this book argues that Paul not only mentions more than seventy specific details of the historical Jesus but he also commends the character of Jesus and echoes His teachings repeatedly in his letters and sermons in full agreement with the Gospel accounts Stout examines Paul's intriguing description of the Man Christ Jesus 1 Tim 2:5 and suggests that this title fulfills the OT expectation of God appearing in human history as a man In his incarnated humanity the Man Christ Jesus accomplished salvation in the historical events of his life and death and in his resurrected humanity he appeared to Paul on the Damascus Road rooting Paul's Christology deeply in human experience Furthermore Stout shows how Paul rests his concept of salvation on a neglected aspect of his doctrine that the entire church is associated with the historical events of the life death and resurrection of Jesus an association which also unites his church with one another in fellowship and service This book then demonstrates that Paul's gospel rests upon Jesus as a man of history who brings salvation into human history in his life death and exaltation as the Man Christ Jesus
