Boys' Life, 1958-09 Boys' Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America. Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news, nature, sports, history, fiction, science, comics, and Scouting. Brown Tom's Schooldays Enos T. Montour, 2024-10-10 Residential school life through the eyes of a child. Enos Montour's Brown Tom's Schooldays, self-published in 1985, tells the story of a young boy's life at residential school. Drawn from Montour's first-hand experiences at Mount Elgin Indian Residential School between 1910 and 1915, the book is an ironic play on the school novel, namely 1857's Tom Brown's Schooldays by Thomas Hughes. An accomplished literary text and uncommon chronicle of federal Indian schooling in the early twentieth century, Brown Tom's Schooldays positions Brown Tom and his schoolmates as citizens of three worlds: the reserve, the white man's world, and the school in between. It follows Tom leaving his family home, making friends, witnessing ill health and death, and enduring constant hunger. Born at Six Nations of the Grand River in 1899, Montour earned degrees in Arts and Divinity at McGill University and served as a United Church minister for more than thirty years, honing his writing in newspapers and magazines and publishing two books of family history. Brown Tom's Schooldays reflects Montour's intelligence and skill as well as his love of history, parody, and literature. This critical edition includes a foreword by the book's original editor, Elizabeth Graham, and an afterword by Montour's granddaughters, Mary Anderson and Margaret McKenzie. In her introduction, historian Mary Jane Logan McCallum documents Montour's life and work, details Brown Tom's Schooldays's publication history, and offers further insight into the operations of Mount Elgin. Entertaining and emotionally riveting, Montour's book opens a unique window into a key period in Canada's residential school history. On the Banks

Canon Fanfiction Christine Schott, 2023-01-30 Several scholarly fields investigate the reuse of source texts most relevantly adaptation studies and fanfiction studies The limitation of these two fields is that adaptation studies focuses narrowly on retelling usually in the form of film adaptations but is not as well equipped to treat other uses of source material like prequels sequels and spinoffs On the other hand fanfiction studies has the broad reach adaptation studies lacks but is generally interested in underground production rather than material that goes through the official publication process and thus enters the literary canon This book sits in the gap between these fields discussing published novels and their contribution to the scholarly engagement with their pre and early modern source material as well as applying that creative framework to the teaching of literature in the college classroom
