Composing Capital Marianna Ritchey, 2019-08-05 The familiar old world of classical music with its wealthy donors and ornate concert halls is changing The patronage of a wealthy few is being replaced by that of corporations leading to new unions of classical music and contemporary capitalism In Composing Capital Marianna Ritchey lays bare the appropriation of classical music by the current neoliberal regime arguing that artists critics and institutions have aligned themselves and by extension classical music itself with free market ideology More specifically she demonstrates how classical music has lent its cachet to marketing schemes tech firm sponsored performances and global corporate partnerships As Ritchey shows the neoliberalization of classical music has put music at the service of contemporary capitalism blurring the line between creativity and entrepreneurship and challenging us to imagine how a noncommodified musical practice might be possible in today s world
