Criticality, Teacher Identity, and (In)equity in English Language Teaching Bedrettin Yazan, Nathanael Rudolph, 2018-03-26 This edited volume envisioned through a postmodern and poststructural lens represents an effort to destabilize the normalized assumption in the discursive field of English language teaching ELT Pennycook 2007 critically oriented and otherwise that identity experience privilege marginalization in equity and interaction can and should be apprehended and attended to via categories embedded within binaries e g NS NNS NEST NNEST The volume provides space for authors and readers alike to explore fluidly critical practical approaches to identity experience in equity and interaction envisioned through and beyond binaries and to examine the implications such approaches hold for attending to the contextual complexity of identity and interaction in and beyond the classroom The volume additionally serves to prompt criticality in ELT towards reflexivity conceptual clarity and congruence and dialogue ELT in Asia in the Digital Era:

Global Citizenship and Identity Suwarsih Madya, Fuad Hamied, Willy A. Renandya, Christine Coombe, Yazid Basthomi, 2018-06-27 This proceedings book captures a wide range of timely themes for readers to be able to foresee the digital era's impact on English teaching in non-English speaking countries. English used in the global environment, the frequent mobile communication and the use of AI-based translators are bringing about dramatic changes in our English language learning and teaching. Who can provide us the wisdom to know what to do? Those scholars going through these complex environmental changes. A collection of puzzle pieces may bring us a better contour for the future than a perfectly edited book. It's indeed a pleasure reading these insightful pieces to gain wisdom for the future of ELT practices in global contexts. Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on English Language Teaching (ICON-ELT 2023) M. Faruq Ubaidillah, Atik Umamah, Kurniasih, Durotun Nasihah, Eko Suhartoyo, Febti Ismiatun, 2023-09-26 This is an open access book. Based on technological developments in learning English, the English Language Education Study Program, Faculty of Teacher Training and Education of Universitas Islam Malang plans to hold the fourth conference. The 4th ICON-ELT 2023 with the theme 'The Future of ELT in the Digital Age: Issues and Innovations' on 30-31 August 2023. This conference will explore the challenges and opportunities of teaching English in the digital era. In addition, the sub-themes carry issues related to curriculum, inclusive education, linguistics, etc. This seminar will provide a forum for discussion and collaboration among researchers and English teachers and will allow them to share best practices, experiences, research findings, and innovations in teaching English. The implementation of this international seminar also collaborates with reputable national and international journals so that selected research articles presented at this international conference will be published in national journals accredited by Sinta 1, Sinta 2, and reputable International Journals. English Language Teaching Lee McCallum, 2022-08-11 This book provides an overview of current trends and practices in English Language Teaching (ELT) across the European Union. It offers insights into key ELT issues which are at the forefront of twenty-first century classrooms. It discusses theoretical and empirical work based on topics such as linguistic imperialism, English as a Medium of Instruction, contrastive language analysis, and the interplay between English and the use of countries' respective native languages. It also explores the challenges of English Language Teaching under different circumstances such as while using different technological platforms, working with different learner groups, those with Special Educational Needs, and revising traditional practices in grammar and vocabulary teaching. Throughout the book, the link between policy, theory, and practice is explicitly highlighted and exemplified. The book is of interest to ELT instructors, course designers, language teachers, and teacher trainers and students enrolled in pre-service English training courses. Autoethnographies in ELT Bedrettin Yazan, Suresh Canagarajah, Rashi Jain, 2020-11-05 This innovative volume showcases the possibilities of autoethnography as a means of exploring the complexities of transnational identity construction for learners, teachers, and practitioners in English language teaching (ELT). The book unpacks the dynamics of today's landscape of language education which sees practitioners and students with nuanced personal and professional histories inhabit liminal spaces as they traverse national cultural linguistic ideological and political borders thereby impacting their identity construction and engagement with pedagogies and practices across different educational domains The volume draws on solo and collaborative autoethnographies of transnational language practitioners to question such well established ELT binaries such as center periphery and native non native and issues of identity related concepts such as ideologies discourses agency and self reflexivity In so doing the book also underscores the unique affordances of autoethnography as a methodological tool for better understanding transnational identity construction in ELT and bringing to the fore key perspectives in emerging areas of study within applied linguistics This dynamic collection will appeal to students scholars and practitioners in English language teaching applied linguistics TESOL education educational linguistics and sociolinguistics
