

The Criterion Collection, a continuing series of important classic and contemporary films, presents

the 400 blows

François Truffaut's first feature is also his most personal. Told from the point of view of Truffaut's cinematic counterpart, Antoine Doinel (Jean-Pierre L  aud), The 400 Blows (Les quatre cents coups) sensitively re-creates the trials of Truffaut's own childhood, unsentimentally portraying aloof parents, oppressive teachers, and petty crime. The film marked Truffaut's passage from leading critic to trailblazing auteur of the French New Wave.

The 400 Blows Criterion Collection:

A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors,

Vivre Ici Alison J. Murray Levine, 2018-03-19 Vivre Ici analyzes a diverse selection of contemporary French documentaries about spaces and places in France Integrating film theory eco criticism and cultural history Levine investigates documentary cinema as experience The book reveals a collage like fragmented vision of France as seen through documentary cameras and explores the social and political consequences of these films that matter Brown v. Board and the Transformation of American Culture Ben Keppel, 2016-01-11 Brown v Board of Education which ended legally sanctioned segregation in American public schools brought issues of racial equality to the forefront of the nation's attention Beyond its repercussions for the educational system the decision also heralded broad changes to concepts of justice and national identity Brown v Board and the Transformation of American Culture examines the prominent cultural figures who taught the country how to embrace new values and ideas of citizenship in the aftermath of this groundbreaking decision

Through the lens of three cultural first responders Ben Keppel tracks the creation of an American culture in which race class and ethnicity could cease to imply an inferior form of citizenship Psychiatrist and social critic Robert Coles in his Pulitzer Prize winning studies of children and schools in desegregating regions of the country helped citizens understand the value of the project of racial equality in the lives of regular families both white and black Comedian Bill Cosby leveraged his success with gentle family centric humor to create televised spaces that challenged the idea of whiteness as the cultural default Public television producer Joan Ganz Cooney designed programs like Sesame Street that extended educational opportunities to impoverished children while offering a new vision of urban life in which diverse populations coexisted in an atmosphere of harmony and mutual support Together the work of these pioneering figures provided new codes of conduct and guided America through the growing pains of becoming a truly pluralistic nation In this cultural history of the impact of Brown v Board Keppel paints a vivid picture of a society at once eager for and resistant to the changes ushered in by this pivotal decision

Shortcomings Adrian Tomine, 2024-06-11 Ben and Miko's relationship is in trouble He's a struggling filmmaker she works for a local film festival and in various ways they're both searching for something else When he's not managing a derelict movie theater Ben spends his time obsessing over unavailable blonde women watching Criterion Collection DVDs and eating in diners with his best friend Alice a grad student with a serial dating habit When Miko moves to New York for an internship Ben begins to explore what he thinks he wants throwing himself headfirst into new relationships unfamiliar surroundings and uncharted emotional territory Equal parts comedy and drama Shortcomings explores the complexities of culture desire and Asian American identity with a critical eye and unsparing irreverent wit Based on Adrian Tomine's groundbreaking graphic novel of the same name Shortcomings was written by Tomine and directed by Randall Park It premiered at the Sundance Film Festival and was an official selection at the Tribeca Festival in advance of a theatrical release from Sony Pictures Classics Tomine's screenplay is presented here with extensive annotations commentary and bonuses including alternate and deleted scenes a selection of color film stills an introduction from Randall Park and an exclusive new comic from Tomine An essential companion to the original graphic novel this volume is an illuminating document of an iconic story's adaptation from page to screen

Cruisy, Sleepy, Melancholy Nicholas de Villiers, 2022-09-27 A brilliant approach to the queerness of one of Taiwan s greatest auteurs A critical figure in queer Sinophone cinema and the first director ever commissioned to create a film for the permanent collection of the Louvre Tsai Ming liang is a major force in Taiwan cinema and global moving image art Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy offers a fascinating systematic method for analyzing the queerness of Tsai s films Nicholas de Villiers argues that Tsai expands and revises the notion of queerness by engaging with the sexuality of characters who are migrants tourists diasporic or otherwise displaced Through their lack of fixed identities these characters offer a clear challenge to the binary division between heterosexuality and homosexuality as well as the Orientalist binary division of Asia versus the West Ultimately de Villiers explores how Tsai s films help us understand queerness in terms of spatial temporal and sexual disorientation Conceiving of Tsai s cinema as an intertextual network Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy makes an important addition to scholarly work on Tsai in English It draws on extensive interviews with the director while also offering a complete reappraisal of Tsai s body of work Contributing to queer film theory and the aesthetics of displacement Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy reveals striking connections between sexuality space and cinema

A Short History of the Movies Gerald Mast, Bruce F.

Kawin,2006 The ninth edition of A Short History of the Movies continues the tradition scrupulously accurate in its details up to date free of jargon that has made it the most widely adopted textbook for college courses in film history and now includes a fresh look at Persistence of Vision and a new chapter on digital cinema This volume offers students a panoramic overview of the worldwide development of film from the first movements captured on celluloid to the early Mack Sennett and Charlie Chaplin shorts through the studio heyday of the 1930s and 1940s and the Hollywood Renaissance of the 1960s and 1970s to the pictures and their technology appearing in the multiplexes and living rooms of today This new edition which has been revised and rewritten to reflect current scholarship recent industry developments and new films and filmmakers represents an accurate scrupulous updating of a classic Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E. Bloom,2017-11-30

Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don't understand it They tend to view France as mysterious sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic As Michelle E Bloom makes clear many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross cultural interplay Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming-liang's What Time Is It There Hou Hsiao-hsien's Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie's Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress She views the work of these well known directors through a Sino French optic applying the tropes of migration or biraciality intertextuality adaptation and remake translation and imitation to shed new light on their work She also calls attention to important lesser studied films Taiwanese director Cheng Yu-chieh's Yang Yang which depicts the up and coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed race beauty and Emily Tang Xiaobai's debut film Conjugation which contrasts Paris and post Tiananmen Square Beijing the one an incarnation of liberty the other a place of entrapment Bloom's insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators Scholars have long studied Sino French literature but this inaugural full length work on Sino French cinema maps uncharted territory offering a paradigm for understanding other cross cultural interminglings and tools to study transnational cinema and world cinema The Sino French rich and multifaceted linguistically culturally and ethnically constitutes an important part of film studies Francophone studies Sinophone studies and myriad other fields This is a must read for students scholars and lovers of film Joe Leydon's Guide to Essential Movies You Must See If You Read, Write About, Or Make Movies Joe Leydon,2004 Veteran film critic Joe Leydon analyzes 100 movies that have defined genres influenced filmmakers and serve as standards by which other films are measured Independent Filmmaking and Digital Convergence Vladan Nikolic,2016-12-01 Independent Filmmaking and Digital Convergence Transmedia and Beyond offers a comprehensive analysis of the technological changes of the past few decades in independent film and media making and explores new strategies and practices in media production exhibition and distribution for independent producers and content creators The book examines how independent filmmaking concepts have merged with digital and online technologies to create new hybrid multi platform content creations It explores key questions like how to reach an audience at a time when media conglomerates and their products dominate the market and simultaneously there is an overabundance of content competing for viewer time The book investigates what kind of stories we tell and why how the audience has changed and what their expectations are what the various niche markets are for independent producers and creators in new media and new models for media financing and distribution The content found in this book Bridges the gap between professional media makers and amateurs by focusing on new and emerging media models and practices Provides a holistic view of the new media landscape and practical advice on producing content in the new multi platform media environment Demonstrates how to create financially sustainable models for independent producers and creators in a shifting and unstable environment providing many challenges but also opportunities for independents The author s website <http://www.filmconvergence.com> supports this book with case studies news and updates

The DVD and the Study of Film M. Parker, 2011-05-23 Drawing on interviews with producers directors and scholars and examining the DVD s supplementary features this book explores how the format at its best combines the enthusiasm of a fan cinematic nostalgia and scholarly insight

The Cinema of Wes Anderson Whitney Crothers Dilley, 2017-08-08 Wes Anderson is considered one of the most important directors of the post Baby Boom generation making films such as Rushmore 1998 and The Royal Tenenbaums 2001 in a style so distinctive that his films are often recognizable from a single frame Through the travelogue The Darjeeling Limited 2007 and the stop motion animation of Fantastic Mr Fox 2009 his films examine issues of gender race and class through dysfunctional family dynamics with particular focus on masculinity and male bonding Anderson s auteur status is enriched by his fascination with Truffaut and the French New Wave as well as his authorship of every one of his screenplays drawing on influences as diverse as Mark Twain J D Salinger Roald Dahl and Stefan Zweig Works such as Moonrise Kingdom 2012 and The Grand Budapest Hotel 2014 continue to fascinate with their postmodern hyper nostalgic attention to detail This book explores the filmic and literary influences that have helped make Anderson a major voice in 21st century indie culture and reveals why Wes Anderson is one of the most inventive filmmakers working in cinema today

Derek Jarman Michael Charlesworth, 2011-11-15 Derek Jarman 1942-94 is known as one of Europe s greatest independent film makers his films call into question and reconsider the nature of filmmaking itself But as Michael Charlesworth shows in this new biography Jarman was also a painter writer gardener set designer and an influential campaigner for gay rights and other social causes Charlesworth discusses the entire diverse range of Jarman s works in order to provide a thorough portrait from childhood to his untimely death Charlesworth is the first scholar to properly integrate Jarman s paintings and writings with his films demonstrating the strong connections between his varied areas of artistic practice He also draws invaluable insights from Jarman's extraordinary series of journals that offer a look into the nature of the society in which he lived as well as his own creative process And through the thoughts and memories of Jarman's friends Charlesworth reveals how Jarman was an important voice on behalf of many one who espoused love and friendship while fearlessly campaigning for the virtues and the value of art in an often hostile and unappreciative political and social atmosphere Fresh in its conclusions and engaging in style Derek Jarman is an accessible and thought provoking analysis of Jarman's phenomenal creativity and a perfect complement to Jarman's works

Comparative Cinema Beate Allert, 2008 An anthology of primarily doctoral student essays on European Film 1925-1965 which demonstrates how analyzing film provides insights into visual culture world literature and multiculturalism Shoot the Piano Player François Truffaut, 1993 Screenplay of 1960 French film with analysis The film shocked and delighted critics and audiences with its sudden shifts of tone and mood its willful play with genre stereotypes and its hilarious in jokes Along with Godard's Breathless the two films heralded the arrival of the so called New Wave of low budget shooting location and cinema as the personal statement of an author Truffaut was one of the directors who paved the way for a postmodern aesthetic The Question of Class in Contemporary Latin American Cinema María Mercedes Vázquez

Vázquez, 2020-07-06 The Question of Class in Contemporary Latin American Cinema responds to the renewed interest in class within and outside academia by examining the aesthetics and politics of class in a representative selection of films from the contemporary cinemas of Venezuela Cuba Mexico Brazil and Argentina It explores the relationship of cinematic practices to conflicting socio political transformations taking place in these five countries such as the intensification of neoliberalism the Turn to the Left and the growth of the middle classes in the period from 2003 to 2015 Utilizing a critical comparative method it sheds a critical light on the presumed depoliticization or new aestheticized politicization of contemporary Latin American cinema The combined textual and industrial analyses of films from strikingly different cinemas and directors through the lenses of class allows for a contextualization of this trend and the observation of its limitations Furthermore this book distinguishes cinematic figurations that correspond to new conceptualizations of class introduced in social studies from figurations of class that have yet to be conceptualized Riding the New Wave Richard Ivan Jobs, 2007 This history reveals youth both as a concept and as a social group to be a primary factor in France's postwar rejuvenation and cultural reconstruction in the wake of the Second World War Mimetic Theory and Film Paolo Diego Bubbio, Chris Fleming, 2019-02-21 The interdisciplinary French American thinker Ren Girard 1923-2015 has been one of the towering figures of the humanities in the last half century The title of Ren Girard's first book offered his own thesis in summary form romantic lie and novelistic truth mensonge romantique et vérité romanesque And yet for a thinker whose career began by an engagement with literature it came as a shock to some that in La Conversion de l'art Girard asserted that the novel may be an outmoded form for revealing humans to themselves However Girard never specified what if anything might take the place of the novel This collection of essays is one attempt at answering this question by offering a series of analyses of films that aims to test mimetic theory in an area in which relatively little has so far been offered Does it make any sense to talk of v rit filmique In addition Mimetic Theory and Film is a response to the widespread objection that there is no viable Girardian aesthetics One of the main questions that this collection considers is can we develop a genre specific mimetic analysis of film and are we able to develop anything approaching a Girardian aesthetic Each of the contributors addresses these questions through the analysis of a film
