Copyright Office, 1919 The Infinite Longing for Home David C. L. Lim, 2005 This is a groundbreaking study of Ben Okri's and K S Maniam's literary problematization of home in relation to subjectivity and the nation within and beyond the context of Nigeria and Malaysia Drawing on Lacan Zizek Laclau and Mouffe and weaving through history politics philosophy and literature this book critically examines the motives and means by which peoples forced to live together in a country love and hate each other and overlook the truths about themselves their actions and beliefs It looks into why some embrace heterogeneity and open-endedness while others are internally compelled to over-identify passionately with their religion and race and to posit theirs as irreducibly distinct from and superior to others The Infinite Longing for Home also traces through Okri's and Maniam's writings a way out of today's political aporia a path to the re-creation of a new society humbled unified by the recognition of its participation in flawed humanity The Munro Family from Longlac Kenneth Munro, 2014-09-04 This is the story of the Munro family of Longlac George Jane and I spent our salad days in this picturesque little Northwestern Ontario community based on the pulp industry nestled between two First Nations reserves It is the story of a largely agricultural family whose members had deep roots in the soil of Saskatchewan and Ontario and whose offspring struggled throughout the twentieth century to become well educated middle class urban family members Although my grandparents and parents brought family characteristics to bear on the development of me and my siblings this little community provided an environment in our early years which left an indelible influence on all three of our lives Longlac was a mirror of the larger Canadian environment which sometimes exhibited prejudice and stifled creativity but it also exhibited tolerance and allowed freedom for personal growth Education was the passport to employment in urban Canada and to a full participation in Canadian life Our parents saw that my siblings and I knew of our origins in both western and eastern Canada and gave us every opportunity to become familiar with both the English and French languages and cultures Our eye on the world was the CBC whose low power relay transmitter broadcast English language programs during the day This environment was our springboard to success in our various professions and provided the following generations with an ability to contribute to Canada as hard working caring members of a middle class family Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
