Abject Performances Leticia Alvarado, 2018-04-19 In Abject Performances Leticia Alvarado draws out the irreverent disruptive aesthetic strategies used by Latino artists and cultural producers who shun standards of respectability that are typically used to conjure concrete minority identities In place of works imbued with pride redemption or celebration artists such as Ana Mendieta Nao Bustamante and the Chicano art collective known as Asco employ negative affects shame disgust and unbelonging to capture experiences that lie at the edge of the mainstream inspirational Latino centered social justice struggles Drawing from a diverse expressive archive that ranges from performance art to performative testimonies of personal faith based subjection Alvarado illuminates modes of community formation and social critique defined by a refusal of identitarian coherence that nonetheless coalesce into Latino affiliation and possibility

Sandra Baringer,2013-04-15 Narratives of suspicion and mistrust have escaped the boundaries of specific sites of discourse to constitute a metanarrative that pervades American culture Through close reading of texts ranging from novels Pynchon's Vineland Silko's Almanac of the Dead Pierce's The Turner Diaries to prison literature this book examines the ways in which narratives of suspicion are both constitutive and symptomatic of a metanarrative that pervades American culture

Representations for the Anthropocene: Latin American Perspectives Clarilza Prado de Sousa,Serena Eréndira Serrano Oswald,2021-04-30 The Anthropocene has become a field of studies in which the influence of human activity on the Earth System and nature is both the main threat and the potential solution Social Representations Theory has been evolving since the 1960s It links knowledge and practice in everyday life and is an effective way to deal with systemic crises based on common sense This book assembles key contributions by Latin American scholars working with social representations in the social sciences that are of conceptual relevance to the study of the Anthropocene and that investigate the societal consequences of complex interrelations between common sense and topics of global relevance such as the contradictions of sustainable development the construction of risks beyond risk perception health negotiation and governance in the field of education gender equality the usefulness of longitudinal and systemic ethnography and case studies and agency and the link between inequality crises and risk society in the context of COVID 19 presenting theoretical and methodological innovations from Spanish Portuguese and French research that have rarely been available in English This is the first book to address the relevance of Social Representations Theory for the Anthropocene as a societal era It presents the multidisciplinary scope of Social Representations This book covers emerging research contributions in Social Representations Theory from Latin America This book presents innovative research and commentaries by established researchers in the field This multidisciplinary book should be in the libraries of many disciplines in the social sciences and humanities Flannery O'Connor R. Neil Scott, 2002 Speaking through the Mask Norma Claire Moruzzi, 2018-09-05 Hannah Arendt was famously resistant to both psychoanalysis and feminism Nonetheless psychoanalytic feminist theory can offer a new interpretive strategy for deconstructing her equally famous opposition between the social and the political Supplementing critical readings of Arendt's most significant texts including The Human Condition On Revolution Rahel Varnhagen The Origins of Totalitarianism Eichmann in Jerusalem and The Life of the Mind with the insights of contemporary psychoanalytic feminist and social theorists Norma Claire Moruzzi reconstitutes the relationship in Arendt's texts between constructed social identity and political agency Moruzzi uses Julia Kristeva's writings on abjection to clarify the textual dynamic in Arendt's work that constructs the social as a natural threat Joan Riviere's and Mary Ann Doane's work on feminine masquerade amplify the theoretical possibilities implicit in Arendt's own discussion of the public political mask In a bold interdisciplinary synthesis Moruzzi develops the social applications of a concept the mask Arendt had described as limited to the strictly political realm a new conception of political agency as social masquerade traced through the marginal but emblematic textual figures who themselves enact the politics of social identity Children on the Threshold in Contemporary Latin American Cinema Rachel Randall, 2017-10-10 Children on the Threshold in Contemporary Latin American Cinema Nature Gender and Agency analyzes child and adolescent protagonists in Latin American cinema This book contends that child characters have taken on a critical representational role within Latin American cinema because of their position on the threshold between nature and culture which converts them into a focus of and a limit to state or colonial biopower Rachel Randall provides a comprehensive examination of the key themes and developments in boys and girls cinematic representations since the adoption of children's rights discourses in the region Recommended for scholars interested in Latin American studies film studies and cultural studies
