publish a book of original poetry which offered a feminist take on the crucifixion or Elizabeth Cary who published the first original play by a woman about the plight of the Jewish princess Mariam Then there was Anne Clifford a lifelong diarist who fought for decades against a patriarchy that tried to rob her of her land in one of England's most infamous inheritance battles These women had husbands and children to care for and little support for their art yet against all odds they defined themselves as writers finding rooms of their own where doors had been shut for centuries Targoff flings those doors open revealing the treasures left by these extraordinary women in the process she helps us see the Renaissance in a fresh light creating a richer understanding of history and offering a much needed female perspective on life in Shakespeare's day
