Situated Textualities Lynette Hunter,1999 Critiques of Knowing Lynette Hunter,2002 Critiques of Knowing Lynette Hunter,2002-03-11 Critiques of Knowing explores what happens to science and computing when we think of them as texts Lynette Hunter elegantly weaves together vast areas of thought rhetoric politics AI computing feminism science studies aesthetics and epistemology Critiques of Knowing shows us that what we need is a radical shake up of approaches to the arts if the critiques of science and computing are to come to any fruition Mapping Landscapes for Performance as Research Shannon Rose Riley,Lynette Hunter,2009-07-16 Although the sciences have long understood the value of practice based research the arts and humanities have tended to structure a gap between practice and analysis This book examines differences and similarities between Performance as Research practices in various community and national contexts mapping out the landscape of this new field Performance Cultures as Epistemic Cultures, Volume I Erika Fischer-Lichte,Torsten Jost,Milos Kotic,Astrid Schenka,2023-04-07 This volume investigates performances as situated machineries of knowing Karin Knorr Cetina exploring them as relational processes for in and with which performers as well as spectators actively re generate diverse practices of knowing knowledges and epistemologies Performance cultures are distinct but interconnected environments of knowledge practice Their characteristic features depend not least on historical as well as contemporary practices and processes of interweaving performance cultures The book presents case studies from diverse locations around the globe including Argentina Canada China Greece India Poland Singapore and the United States Authored by leading scholars in theater performance and dance studies its chapters probe not only what kinds of knowledges are re generated in performances for example cultural social aesthetic and or spiritual knowledges the contributions investigate also how performers and spectators practice knowing and not knowing in performances paying particular attention to practices and processes of interweaving performance cultures and the ways in which they contribute to shaping performances as dynamic machineries of knowing today Ideal for researchers students and practitioners of theater performance and dance Re Generating Knowledges in Performance explores vital knowledge serving functions of performance investigating and emphasizing in particular the impact and potential of practices and processes of interweaving of performance cultures that enable performers and spectators to re generate crucial knowledges in increasingly diverse ways Literary Value/ Cultural Power Lynette Hunter,2001 Hunter examines the marginalised verbal arts written and spoken texts that don t fit the conventional patterns such as e mail letters diaries writing and speaking from the Black diaspora women s writing and electronic texts Sentient Performativities of Embodiment Lynette Hunter,Elisabeth Krimmer,Peter Lichtenfels,2016-05-05 This collection offers writings on the body with a focus on performance defined as both staged performance and everyday performance Traditionally theorizations of the body have either analyzed its impact on its socio historical environment or treated the body as a self enclosed semiotic and affective system This collection makes a conscious effort to merge these two approaches It is interested in interactions between bodies and other bodies bodies and environments and bodies and objects

Politics of Practice Lynette Hunter, 2019-10-17 This book discusses affective practices in performance through the study of four contemporary performers Keith Hennessy Ilya No Caro Novella and duskin drum to suggest a tentative rhetoric of performativity generating political affect and permeating attempts at social justice that are often anterior to discourse The first part of the book makes a case for the political work done alongside discourse by performers practising with materials that are not known in ways that are directly relevant to people carrying out their daily lives In the second part of the book four case study chapters circle around figures of irresolvable paradox hendiadys enthymeme anecdote allegory that gesture to what is not known to study strategies for processes of becoming knowing and valuing These figures also shape some elements of these performances that make up a suggested rhetorical stance for performativity Interrogating Cultural Studies Paul Bowman, 2003-01-20 This book presents a new approach to the field of cultural studies in the form of a series of interviews with some of the world's leading and emergent cultural theorists including Simon Critchley Jeremy Gilbert and Slavoj Žižek Framed by lively and informative introductions which introduce the work of these thinkers and which also introduce the reader to the crucial importance of the issues that the interviews address The book is an entertaining introduction to the key ideas in the field the strengths and problematic weaknesses of cultural studies as a discipline allowing the reader to chart its development and to identify emerging trends Understanding New Media Kim H. Veltman, 2006 This book outlines the development currently underway in the technology of new media and looks further to examine the unforeseen effects of this phenomenon on our culture our philosophies and our spiritual outlook
