

The image features a close-up of a black fly, possibly a crane fly, resting on a textured, light-colored surface that appears to be snow or ice. The fly is positioned on the left side of the frame, with its long, dark body and thin legs clearly visible. On the right side, there is a large, stylized blue star graphic. Inside the star, the text "Bugs in Snow?!" is written in a white, serif font. The star has a white outline and is surrounded by a pattern of smaller, lighter blue star shapes. The overall composition suggests a theme of winter insects or the survival of bugs in cold environments.
