Richard Avery, Don Marsh

So Much We Have Anthem:

The Worst Songs in the World David Pate, 2024-08-06 The best known songs in the world are violent sexist and religious so why do we celebrate national anthems when we should be rewriting them The story begins in a London theatre in 1745 where the modern idea of anthems started out as triumphant expressions of national superiority They glorified violence claimed the support of God for their country and mostly ignored women David Pate says it s time to dump lyrics about cutting throats watering fields with blood building walls with the bodies of enemies and celebrating the sound of machine guns From the author s own youth as a schoolboy in Scotland when he was caned for refusing to sing God Save the Queen to the ubiquity of anthems in sports and as weapons for extreme patriotism The Worst Songs in the World looks at the origins of many of the world s anthems including the movie theme song that became China s national anthem and the English tune used for The Star Spangled Banner This wide ranging deeply researched narrative combines politics personalities humour and vivid storytelling to argue for what we should all want better national songs Church music; its present neglected state, and important reasons for its reformation James COOPER (Vicar of Garton-on-the-Wolds.), 1860 Soaring Where Christ Has Led Richard Avery, Don Marsh, 2002 Believing that Christian worship should be both exciting and stimulating and respectful of God and worshipers and liturgical traditions Dick Avery and Don Marsh have put their considerable talents together to bring you ideas and music that make worship soar As you read these groundbreaking ideas tailored to the seasons of the church year you ll find yourself saying Yes YES YES and you ll be eager to put them in place with your congregation Everything Avery and Marsh describe in this remarkable volume has been done successfully in their congregation at the regular Sunday morning service of worship so you will find no off the wall suggestions pushed for mere novelty s sake or just to shake things up Rather every principle every suggestion every idea has a purpose and goal befitting the Gospel and designed to help worshipers tune in to the mighty Lord of All With all of this plus several samples of original Avery Marsh music written especially for Sunday morning worship Soaring Where Christ Has Led is a resource you will use week after week in planning worship services that delight congregations honor God with momentous expressions of joy and teach the way of Christ in today s world Nationally renowned for their creative worship celebrations Richard Avery and Donald Marsh were colleagues in ministry for 40 years at the First Presbyterian Church in Port Jervis New York where Avery served as pastor and Marsh as choirmaster directing 3 choirs and director of arts producing 83 major plays and working with educational projects They have collaborated in composing hymns songs and anthems of which more than 150 have been published During the last 30 years they have led regional and national church assemblies conferences and workshops on worship music and drama for many denominations and in virtually all 50 states A native of California Avery is a graduate of the University of Redlands and Union Theological Seminary in New York Marsh has bachelor s and master s degrees from the University of Houston and worked for 17 years in New York s music and theater world as a composer choreographer pianist and actor Avery and Marsh continue their collaboration in composing for the church and in leading special liturgical and musical events while living in retirement in Santa Fe New Mexico Once a Week Eneas Sweetland Dallas,1866

Anthems and Anthem Composers Myles Birket Foster,1901 Debates of the Transkei Legislative Assembly Transkei (South Africa). Legislative Assembly,1976-03 Ministry of Morale Ian McLaine,2021-11-21 This book first published in 1979 is an analysis of the wartime Ministry of Information responsible for the maintenance of public morale How was it that British morale remained high yet the department responsible was so bad This book examines the domestic work of the Ministry and offers an unprecedented insight into the mind of both government and people during the war It answers key questions How did a government department assess and set about maintaining morale How did it handle the social and political questions associated with morale post war social reform press freedom and censorship the nature of the Soviet regime How sound in fact was civilian morale on the basis of the secret Wartime Intelligence reports then available One of the most fascinating aspects of this book is the Ministry s constant internal debate on how its responsibilities should best be carried out It is a key work of research on the political psychological and mass communications problems facing a society at war The National Psalmist ,1849 Hammer of Time Erica Lindquist,Aron Christensen,2014-01-02 Time heals all wounds Duaal Sinnay may have banished Xartasia and the Devourers from Prianus but they re not gone Maeve has gone to warn the Central World Alliance but they have no interest in fairy tales and stories of monsters So when rumors start of a mysterious White Queen promising the return of Arcadia the Alliance takes no notice Now it falls to the crew of the Blue Phoenix to discover what is happening Maeve has little doubt that Xartasia is this White Queen but if that s true then how can Devourers help her to bring back the kingdom that they themselves destroyed a century ago Whatever the answer it promises nothing good for the rest of the galaxy Hammer of Time is the third book of the Reforged Trilogy The New Music Review and Church Music Review ,1927
