His head is tilted back slightly, and his eyes are looking upwards. He has a shaved head and is wearing a white tank top. Identity, Oppression, and Diversity in Archaeology Laura E. Heath-Stout, 2024-10-31 Identity Oppression and Diversity in Archaeology documents how racism classism sexism heterosexism and ableism affect the demographics of archaeology and discusses how knowledge that archaeologists produce is shaped by the discipline's demographic homogeneity Previous research has shown that like many academic fields archaeology is numerically dominated by straight white cisgender people and those in positions of authority are predominantly men This book examines how and why those demographic trends persist It also elucidates how individual archaeologists social identities shape the research they conduct and therefore how our demographics affect and limit our knowledge production on a disciplinary scale It explains how through unflinching reflection proactive policymaking and sincere community building we can build a diverse and inclusive discipline This book will appeal to archaeologists who have an interest in diversity and inclusion within the discipline as well as scholars in other disciplines who are engaged in research on diversity in academia
