La democracia en América Latina está en continua transformación los ciudadanos han modificado sus preferencias electorales ante el descrédito de los políticos y ante la crisis de representación que se vive. La mayoría de los países en este lado del continente americano atraviesan una situación de riesgo que amenaza al pluralismo democrático y a las instituciones ante un presidencialismo exacerbado que se construye en los últimos años. Asimismo, el populismo como una característica de los nuevos gobiernos electos abre la discusión sobre hacia dónde va la democracia. Como interpretar los cambios políticos en América Latina sobre todo después de la pandemia del Covid 19 que ha modificado todo el entorno social. En este libro varios autores latinoamericanos abren la discusión sobre la vulnerabilidad democrática y el sistema electoral a partir de las victorias electorales de los partidos políticos que han promovido el presidencialismo fuerte. Los ciudadanos están votando por líderes carismáticos, el voto emocional y la esperanza de sus promesas se convierte en una característica que va a determinar los resultados de la democracia que viene. Invitamos a conocer este análisis multidisciplinario y transversal que seguramente permitirá entender los cambios que estamos viviendo.
