Soccer Hero Pilots:

Empire of the Clouds James Hamilton-Paterson, 2010-10-07 In 1945 Britain was the world's leading designer and builder of aircraft a world class achievement that was not mere rhetoric And what aircraft they were The sleek Comet the first jet airliner The awesome delta winged Vulcan an intercontinental bomber that could be thrown about the sky like a fighter The Hawker Hunter the most beautiful fighter jet ever built and the Lightning which could zoom ten miles above the clouds in a couple of minutes and whose pilots rated flying it as better than sex How did Britain so lose the plot that today there is not a single aircraft manufacturer of any significance in the country What became of the great industry of de Havilland or Handley Page And what was it like to be alive in that marvellous post war moment when innovative new British aircraft made their debut and pilots were the rock stars of the age James Hamilton Paterson captures that season of glory in a compelling book that fuses his own memories of being a schoolboy plane spotter with a ruefully realistic history of British decline its loss of self confidence and power It is the story of great and charismatic machines and the men who flew them heroes such as Bill Waterton Neville Duke John Derry and Bill Beaumont who took inconceivable risks so that we could fly without a second thought

Cockpit Confessions of an Airline Pilot Stephen G. Keshner, 2001-04

My Eternal Heroes Desmond Joseph McCarthy, 2019-04-29 This vivid story from an Anglo Irish American veteran of World War II tells firsthand of the terror and hardship of the Battle of Britain and the Blitz on London and the bravery of the British during those eighteen months when they stood alone against Germany and Italy Tapping into the memories etched deeply into his mind while a young man McCarthy tells of his coming of age in war torn London His unique perspective as an Irishman born in Wales raised in London and immigrated to the United States offers a truly unique voice in the narrative of World War II

Killing in the Name of Identity Vamik Volkan, 2014-07-01 Why do they hate us so Vamik Volkan has the most compelling humane and universal response to the riddle of our time In this extraordinary and timely book Volkan explains better than anyone the relationship between large group identities and massive traumas and current events and ongoing conflicts around the world including those related to the horrific attacks of 9 11 In Killing in the Name of Identity Volkan has taken us further and deeper into the dark and vulnerable collective mind of ethnic religious cultural and national group conflict Through his eyes and words we find ourselves looking into and making contact with the universal elements present in humanity and in ourselves which converge in producing the conditions for great human tragedies No one understands nor writes about large group terror and violence in a more compassionate and profoundly instructive way

East End Heroes, Stateside Kings - The Amazing True Story of Three Footballer Players Who Changed the World Brian Belton, 2008-01-07 On 1 April 1972 West Ham United made sporting history by becoming the first club from the highest echelon of English football to field three black players in League competition What seems commonplace now was unheard of at the time Their manager Ron Greenwood picked Clive Charles born in Canning Town just a few miles from the Hammers

Upton Park home Ade Coker from Nigeria and Clyde Best who had made his way to London's Docklands from Bermuda. Together these three players smashed a social barrier playing for this most romantic and enigmatic of clubs East End Heroes. Stateside Kings tells of the origins of these players that fateful day in '72 and their lives over the following 30 years as they became pioneering figures in the success of the North American Soccer League. After being named by Pele in the all-time greatest NASL team, Charles managed the leading College side Portland Timbers, guided the American Women to World Cup glory and achieved historic results in Olympic competition with the US Under 23s. Coker was another leading light in the modern American game and represented the USA at international level, overcoming devastating injury problems. Best grew to be a legend in the NASL and along with Charles was one of only four former West Ham players to manage at international level when he took over the Bermudian national side. He has recently been awarded an MBE. Painstakingly researched and including a foreword and interview with Kenny Lynch, one of Britain's best-loved entertainers and lifelong West Ham fan, this book tells the story of three young black men who genuinely broke the mould.

Falklands War Heroes Michael Ashcroft, 2021-11-09. The Falklands War, which may prove to be the last colonial war that Britain ever fights, took place in 1982, fought 8,000 miles from home soil. It cost the lives of 255 British military personnel, with many more wounded, some seriously. The war also witnessed many acts of outstanding courage by the UK Armed Forces, after a strong Task Force was sent to regain the islands from the Argentine invaders. Soldiers, sailors, and airmen risked, and in some cases gave their lives for the freedom of 1,820 islanders. Lord Ashcroft, who has been fascinated by bravery since he was a young boy, has amassed several medal collections over the past four decades, including the world's largest collection of Victoria Crosses, Britain and the Commonwealth's most prestigious gallantry award. Falklands War Heroes tells the stories behind his collection of valour and service medals awarded for the Falklands War. The collection, almost certainly the largest of its kind in the world, spans all the major events of the war. This book, which contains nearly forty individual write-ups, has been written to mark the fortieth anniversary of the war. It is Lord Ashcroft's attempt to champion the outstanding bravery of our Armed Forces during an undeclared war that was fought and won over ten weeks in the most challenging conditions.
