The Papacy In Transition:

The Papacy in Transition Patrick Granfield, 1981 Papal Elections in the Age of Transition, 1878-1922 Francis A. Burkley-Young, 2000-01-01 The startling changes that have taken place within the Catholic Church since World War II were the direct accomplishments of Pius XII and his successors. These modern popes however formed their policies and wrought these changes based on the work of four transitional popes who preceded them: Leo XIII 1878-1903 who re-established a direct link between the papacy and the lay communicant; Pius X 1903-1914 who was a conservative reactionary; and Benedict XV 1914-1922 and Pius XI 1922-1939 who revived and extended Leo's efforts to modernize the Church and its policies. Based largely on unpublished or ephemeral materials, Papal Elections in the Age of Transition recounts the stories of how these four men rose to the papal throne, including previously unpublished details of the conclaves. This fascinating narrative sheds new light on the rise to power of the popes who prepared the way for the Catholic Church at the dawn of the twenty-first century.

The Gift of the Church Peter C. Phan, 2016-03-24 As the Church enters its third millennium, it must take stock of its identity and mission. These essays in The Gift of the Church address the fundamental issues confronting the Church in its immediate future. Their authors represent the most prominent ecclesialologists of our time. Written in honor of Patrick Granfield OSB, these essays form a textbook for classes in ecclesiology. They also are a useful tool for those engaged in various ministries in the Church to update themselves on the theology of different aspects of the Church. The first section of essays discusses ecclesiology in its historical development as well as its methodology; the second examines various aspects of the Church; and the third part presents the life and work of Patrick Granfield. The essays are clearly written and based on solid and extensive scholarship. Ecclesiology has been the central theme of theological reflections since Vatican II and may continue to be in the next millennium. This textbook fulfills in part Pope John Paul II's vision for the Jubilee Year when Christians with a profound sense of commitment will likewise express their gratitude for the gift of the Church. Essays and authors in Part One: Ecclesiology in Historical Context are: Theologies of the Church in the New Testament by Frank J. Matera; The Development of Ecclesiology: Early Church to the Reformation by Eric Plumer; The Development of Ecclesiology: Modernity to the Twentieth Century by Michael J.
