Titmarsh : Complete with 70 Original and Classics Illustrated William Makepeace Thackeray,2020-02-25 Sir It becomes every man in his station to acknowledge and praise virtue wheresoever he may find it and to point it out for the admiration and example of his fellow men Some months since when you presented to the writer of these pages a small account for coats and pantaloons manufactured by you and when you were met by a statement from your creditor that an immediate settlement of your bill would be extremely inconvenient to him your reply was Mon Dieu sir let not that annoy you if you want money as a gentleman often does in a strange country I have a thousand franc note at my house which is quite at your service History or experience sir makes us acquainted with so few actions that can be compared to yours an offer like this from a stranger and a tailor seems to me so astonishing that you must pardon me for thus making your virtue public and acquainting the English nation with your merit and your name Let me add sir that you live on the first floor that your cloths and fit are excellent and your charges moderate and just and as a humble tribute of my admiration permit me to lay these volumes at your feet Your obliged faithful servant M A TITMARSH The Paris Sketch Book of Mr. M.
