

CALLED TO BE...

A LOCAL LAY-PASTOR

Local lay-pastors work closely and collaboratively with ordained ministers and lay leaders.

Each role is created locally and is unique. All local lay-pastors share in pastoral care and leadership for a local Methodist church or circuit. They help members to discern how God is calling them into ministry and mission by supporting, encouraging and enabling the witness of the local church.

“Come with me, come wander, come welcome the world where strangers might smile or where stones may be hurled;
come leave what you cling to, lay down what you clutch and find, with hands empty, that hearts can hold much.”

John L. Bell & Graham Maule, from the song Sing Hail for the Carpenter

- Where do you hear the voice of God in your local community?
- What are you holding in your heart that might bless and benefit others?

Ministry in the Countryside: Revised Expanded Edition Andrew Bowden, 2003-05-15

Some years ago Faith in the Countryside the report of the Archbishop's Commission on Rural Areas Acora was launched at Lambeth Palace It was widely accepted as a good document and a worthy companion to Faith in the City But while it seemed to put the rural Church on the agenda it failed to come up with acceptable ministerial solutions Andrew Bowden's book offers a model for future rural ministry which is practical positive and a much needed follow up to the Commission's report He recognises that although rural dioceses have taken new initiatives rural clergy and congregations need an overall vision and a practical strategy This excellent handbook is as significant as the report itself for the future of rural ministry It is now reissued with an expanded text to take recent developments fully into account

What do you really want to do with your life Who do you want to be in your life How does God speak to you about your life This volume like the Catholics on Call program at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago raises these important questions The highly respected essayists shed light on the variety of vocational paths in the church while providing insights about discernment ministry and prayer They seek to offer young men and women information guidance and inspiration as they discern a life of ministry and help them to discover that discerning a vocation is not a matter of choosing the more appealing of a variety of options rather it is an openness to discovering God's will Contributors Robin Ryan CP editor Thomas P Rausch SJ Donald Senior CP Sheila McLaughlin Robert Schreiter CPPS Charlene Diorka SSJ Bishop Robert Morneau Stephen Bevans SVD

Best Practices in Catholic Church Ministry Performance Management Charles Zech, 2010-06-23

The Church is not a business but it does have a stewardship responsibility to ensure that all of its resources are used as effectively as possible to carry out God's work on earth In the case of human resource assets good stewardship involves assisting those engaged in ministry whether clerical or lay to achieve their greatest potential through the various components of performance management including performance assessment This unique collection brings together both scholars and practitioners who tackle the tricky questions related to the performance management of lay Church workers and clergy priests and deacons Performance management is multi faceted ranging from issues about hiring job descriptions performance criteria performance appraisal formation and firing procedures As a charitable organization the Church is subject to the same civil law employment regulations as companies in the private sector Contributors demonstrate that Canon Law and Church tradition supports the performance management of Church ministers including clergy This is a valuable resource for programs in church ministry pastoral administration and in the emerging field of church management

Good News Parish Leadership Michael L. Papesh, 2008 For many Catholics today the leaders described above don't exist For just as many parish leadership does not equal good news But Father Michael Papesh believes it certainly CAN and here he offers guidelines tools and ideas for making it happen By sharing pastoral leadership and structuring power distribution he says a parish can enjoy be mirror proclaim and bring to the world the transforming goodness of God And thus he offers a whole system model for pastoral leadership that is theologically grounded in the hospitality of God as revealed through the ministry of Jesus

Good News People Church of England. House of Bishops.
