completely A Direct Path to Enlightenment Kong-sprul Blo-gros-mtha'-yas,1975 The Essence of the Path to Enlightenment lama Samten,2021 To this day The Lamrim or Stages of the Path to Enlightenment is associated with Atisha s famous eleventh century text written during his stay in Tibet It presents the entire path taught by the Buddha It was later explained in depth by the Tibetan master the great Lama Tsongkhapa Far from being a mere collection of Buddhist teaching it consists in an ordered and detailed sequence of the stages of meditation necessary to obtain enlightenment Many great masters have written Lamrims and they have always based themselves on Atisha s text while adapting their work to the cultural context of their time Lama Samten is no exception to this rule This particular Lamrim has been adapted to respond to the needs of those among us who want to obtain enlightenment in this day and age It has been written specifically to facilitate our understanding of the Lamrim It is recommended that the student receive the oral instructions of a qualified guide to truly benefit from reading this book The Path of Enlightenment Koananda Luminosity,2021-09-10 THE PATH OF ENLIGHTENMENT A true bodhisattva knows that awakening is not dependent on our innate nature nor is it dependent on the experience of life When we know that no matter what we do and no matter how long we seek there is a way to gain Enlightenment we experience great peace as if we have gained the wealth of the universe It is this awakening which gave the Buddha the ability to see beyond his own ego and understand the true nature of the cosmos Now Mahamudra happens within humanities heart This is what the Amida Buddha understood as well He understood that although he was no more than an ordinary being he possessed the power to liberate all beings from suffering He knew that he had not attained Enlightenment but he also knew that he was neither of the two principal ranks of bodhisattva Although he had attained no such rank he was not less enlightened than the Three Jewels rather he was far more enlightened than any human being The bliss he had experienced was not the floating around sense of transcendence the waking up through awakening but rather a direct experience of being awake which is at the same time aware of its incompleteness It is dependent on a pure vision a non dual vision Because there is a true vision there is a way of opening up to reality The bodhisattva doesn t blindly follow the Buddha but has an independent means of attainment It is the definitive realization of a state of nonduality one that sees through the illusion of duality that sees reality as unity As the Buddha said Even though I am just a human being the teachings of buddha s Amida s teaching are with me As the Buddha said Even though I am just a human being the Dharma of the Buddhas is with me This self knowledge leads to the emancipation of all beings from suffering The Buddha s teaching is the only true path to enlightenment and only he knows how to practice it He is completely at one with his pure vision He knows that enlightenment is beyond the reach of human mind He knows that he has not gained the topmost rank but as Mahayanists say he is a saint who has experienced enlightenment His mind is now pure and undistracted his clarity is limitless his sense of compassion universal his perfect stillness complete We do not know how to practice but if we are ever to attain enlightenment we must know how to practice In the words of His Holiness the Sixteenth Karmapa This is the supreme teaching of all masters in the ancient world Entering the Path of Enlightenment Śāntideva,1970 The Middle-Length Treatise on the Stages of the Path to Enlightenment Tsongkhapa,2021-06-29 The first complete English translation of renowned scholar saint Tsongkhapa s Middle Length Treatise on the Stages of the Path Tsongkhapa 1357 1419 the author of the well known Great Treatise on the Stages of the Path to Enlightenment and the teacher of the First Dalai Lama is renowned as one of the greatest scholar saints that Tibet has ever produced A dozen years after writing the Great Treatise he wrote the Middle Length Treatise on the Stages of the Path presented here in its first complete English translation Half the length of the well known Great Treatise this work similarly presents a systematic overview of the Buddhist path Tsongkhapa begins by abridging the longer work distilling its explanations for quicker integration He presents a series of meditations beginning with recognizing the rarity of our human existence and the great opportunities it affords followed by reflections on impermanence suffering and the promise of liberation from our past actions until proceeding to the path of bodhisattvas whose universal compassion seeks to free every being from suffering Tsongkhapa gives especially detailed instructions on samatha the deep meditative concentration that is a precondition for the highest insight into the nature of reality The final and largest section on that very insight is unique to this work particularly Tsongkhapa s presentation of conventional truth and ultimate truth Those new to Tibetan Buddhist teachings will benefit from the approachable style of this classic handbook for enlightenment and beginners and longtime practitioners alike will cherish the clear guidance from one of Tibet s great luminaries The Great Path of Awakening Kong-sprul Blo-gros-mtha'-yas,1987 At the core of spiritual development in Mahayana Buddhism is the arousal of bodhicitta awakened heart Bodhicitta is the unconditional intention to help all sentient beings become free of suffering It is the complete abandonment of any sort of personal territory both in our relationships with others and in our understanding of the world as it is It begins with the development of love and compassion for others and matures into the full resolution to help them as much as possible This theme is the focus of The Seven Points of Mind Training as taught by Chekawa Yeshe Dorje a twelfth century master of the Kadampa lineage of Tibetan Buddhism The Great Path of Awakening is a new translation of this basic teaching with the illuminating commentary of Jamgon Kongtrul a great nineteenth century scholar Kongtrul provides clear and concise instructions for practicing the techniques of mind training with an emphasis on meeting the ordinary situations of life employing intelligence and compassion under all circumstances Also included in an appendix is a translation of the root text of the Seven Points of Mind Training by the Nalanda Translation Committee under the direction of Chogyam Trungpa The Great Treatise On The Stages Of The Path To Enlightenment Tson-kha-pa Blo-bzañ-grags-pa,Joshua W. C. Cutler,Tsong-Kha-Pa,2004 This much anticipated volume explains how to train in the six perfections in order to develop the heart of compassion indispensable for any student who wants to put the Dharma into practice
