Our Trees of Life Christine Graef, 2015-11-20 God's word begins with the tree of life and the tree of knowledge watered by a river nourishing Eden As it ends with the image of a tree by a river appearing in heaven the redeemed who have stood as a tree planted by streams of water bringing the fruits of the spirit and birds and animals of every kind find shelter are healed by its leaves In the ecology of trees we find the believer rooted in living water lifting to the heavens sheltering others and bearing fruit From communities of pines and oaks of the North American continent to the solitary baobab silhouetted on the African savannah to the restoration of Israel's cedars in Asia trees are being felled under a darkening warfare to silence God's words Every year an estimated 100 000 Christians die for their faith Hundreds more suffer loss of home and jobs Churches burn and worshippers are slaughtered Jesus is being argued in the courts and classrooms His believers are imprisoned and beheaded Our Trees of Life combines the tangible world of trees around us with an image of God's concern for us in a world increasingly hostile to his word Zen And The Art Of Building A Log Cabin Martin Avery,2010-07 A novel about the causes of happiness and the secrets of enlightenment and Zen set in the Zen Forest

The Nanjing Massacre and the Making of Mediated Trauma Hongtao Li,Shunming Huang,2021-08-30 Drawing on cultural trauma theory this book investigates how collective memory of the Nanjing Massacre is fashioned in China and how the mass media political power and public praxis jointly shape the politics and culture of memory in contemporary China Allowing for the dimensions of history and different mediating spaces the authors first conduct textual analysis of news reports from traditional media since the event took place revealing that the significance of the Massacre was initially portrayed as a local incident before its construction as a national trauma and finally a collective memory In a study of physical and online memorial spaces including the Memorial Hall commemorative activities on the Internet and new media platforms the book unveils the production and reproduction of trauma narratives as well as how these narratives have been challenged The final part further studies the interactions between media and other institutional settings while exploring issues of global memory and reconciliation in East Asia The title will be an essential read for anyone interested in memory studies media and communication and particularly the collective memory of the Nanjing Massacre Power of Kids

Thierry Kouam,2017-11-03 In the small kingdom of Manitoba the most hated king of all time holds great power over his people Because of King Hector's evil reign everyone is afraid of him especially children because they are the ones who are being mystically tortured by him and his lord and master At the same time adults decide to stop creating life Sunshine is born She is a mysterious little girl gifted with secret powers When the king learns that she has been named Sunshine a name he has banned from the kingdom he decides to kill her As Sunshine begins a battle against the king his lord and their combined satanic powers she sets out on a quest to release the souls of the children who are controlled by them and to fight for their rights to education But her biggest obstacle lies before her as she attempts to prevent the king and his lord from carrying out the evil plan they have for her people In this fantasy tale a young woman gifted with special powers must battle an evil king and his lord in order to save her land from their wrath The Shaman's Toolkit Ingerman, Sandra,2013-07-01 According to Sandra Ingerman and thousands of years of shamans before her it is not what we do but who we are and what we are willing to become that affects our happiness the health of our communities and ultimately the planet itself The Shaman s Toolkit teaches us how to root out the beliefs that are limiting us how to heal our inner lives and become the people we most want to be and how to utilize ancient shamanic principles of manifestation to help shape the world we want to live in This is shamanism with a kind of social change agenda It s about having the happiest and most fulfilling life possible and becoming a truly effective world citizen and change maker This book was originally published in 2010 as How to Thrive in Changing Times

The Tree of Life and Arboreal Aesthetics in Early Modern Literature Victoria Bladen,2021-10-27 The Tree of Life and Arboreal Aesthetics in Early Modern Literature explores the vital motif of the tree of life and what it meant to early modern writers who drew from its long histories in biblical classical and folkloric contexts giving rise to a language of trees an arboreal aesthetics An ancient symbol of immortality the tree of life was appropriated by Christian ideology and iconography to express ideas about Christ however the concept also migrated beyond religious doctrine Ideas circulating around the tree of life enabled writers to imagine and articulate ideas of death and rebirth loss and regeneration the condition of the political state and personal states of the soul through arboreal metaphors and imagery The motif could be used to sacralise landscapes such as the garden orchard or country estate blurring the lines between contemporary green spaces and the spiritual and poetic imaginary Located within the field of environmental humanities and intersecting with ecocriticism and critical plant studies this volume outlines a comprehensive history of the tree of life and offers interdisciplinary readings of focus texts by Shakespeare George Herbert Henry Vaughan Aemilia Lanyer Andrew Marvell and Ralph Austen It includes consideration of related ideas and motifs such as the tree of Jesse and the Green Man illuminating the rich histories and meanings that emerge when an understanding of the tree of life and arboreal aesthetics are brought to the analysis of early modern literary texts and their representations of green spaces both physical and metaphysical

Divorce, God's Will? Stephen Gola,2003 God uses divorce to save lives

Many divorced people have felt that they have let God down Those who need to divorce feel that they are going against God s will But no more God Himself has spoken on their behalf The Lord said to the author Son sit down I want to teach you about divorce Divorce God s Will is the result of God s command to help people come out from under the condemnation of religion and to experience His love This book is full of hope and compassion It reveals God s true heart to those who are in a bad marriage and those who have gone through a divorce There is so much love and power that flows from these pages that it literally releases the reader from condemnation and brings their heart to total peace Since God s Word the Bible is the foundation for marriage and divorce the author has plainly established and made clear from the Bible that God is for divorce God cares more for the man and woman who make up the marriage than He cares for the marriage itself Divorce God s Will covers everything from staying in a bad marriage too long to that ever elusive subject Submission This book is destined to be the psychologist s clergy s and family marriage counselor s most referenced companion You can learn more about Divorce God s Will at www.divorcehope.com
