The Worlds of Farscape Sherry Ginn, Donald E. Palumbo, C.W. Sullivan III, 2013-08-20 Reversing a common science fiction cliché Farscape follows the adventures of the human astronaut John Crichton after he is shot through a wormhole into another part of the universe Here Crichton is the only human being going from being a member of the most intelligent species on our planet to being frequently considered mentally deficient by the beings he encounters in his new environment John Crichton befriends a group of beings from various species attempting to escape from imprisonment aboard a living spaceship The series which broke many of the so called rules of science fiction follows Crichton's attempts to survive in worlds that are often hostile to him and his friends Their adventures center on each being's attempt to find a way home The essays in this volume explore themes running throughout the series such as good and evil love and sex and what it means to be a hero as well as the various characters populating the series including the villains and even the ship itself

The Peacekeeper's Wife Kevin Eze, 2016-08-19 The Peacekeeper's Wife explores lives torn by war both far and near strange and foreign yet deep in the lives left behind When Issa was sent as one of the several thousands to the peacekeeping mission in the Congo Malika his newly wedded wife watched and waited in helpless horror entangled in someone else's war As Issa guarded the UN base barring rebels from raping children and patrolling borders of a rich ruined territory back home in Segol Malika felt the weight of separation descending to a gradual but forceful emotional abyss Fatimata her mother in law pained by the absence of a son accused her of being a witch and sent her to Bintou the marabout The conflict between Malika and Fatimata escalated drawing fire from their mutual longing The Peacekeeper's Wife deftly captures the human catastrophe of wars and migration in faraway lands through the excruciating loss and loneliness of estranged families burdened by the separation from loved ones
