Long Shadows Erna Paris, 2015-05-05 One of the most urgent issues facing the world today is how countries shape historical memory in the aftermath of calamity making decisions that cast long shadows into the future Combining gripping storytelling with sharp observation Erna Paris takes us on an extraordinary journey through four continents to explore how nations reinvent themselves after cataclysmic events She travels through the United States with its long buried memory of slavery to South Africa where the Truth and Reconciliation Commission struggles to heal the wounds left by apartheid to Japan France and Germany where the unresolved pain of Hiroshima and the Holocaust still resonate and to the former Yugoslavia where she exposes the cynical shaping of historical memory Through its insightful analysis Long Shadows compels us to question where we stand as individuals in relation to our own collective histories Erna Paris is the winner of ten national and international writing awards three for Long Shadows She is the author of six critically acclaimed books of literary non fiction including The End of Days A Story of Tolerance Tyranny and the Expulsion of the Jews from Spain which won the 1996 Canadian National Jewish Book Award for History She lives in Toronto Winner of the Pearson Writers Trust Non Fiction Award the inaugural Shaugnessy Cohen Prize for Political Writing and the Dorothy Shoichet prize for history from the Canadian Jewish Book Awards Long Shadows is magnificent I would love to see this book taught in every history class in America Iris Chang author of The Rape of Nanking Enlightening Riveting Paris raises questions of enormous importance Kirkus Paris convincingly demonstrates that memory is not only selective but subject to calculated efforts to serve personal needs and national interests The Christian Science Monitor Erna Paris gives us a rich if p broader historical picture into account David Turnock brings together the entire scope of the modernization process from the first phase of modern national development in the Balkans and the impact of imperial systems on the area as a whole to the feeling of unfinished business at the end of the Second World War He continues up to the present day state of transition evaluating the contrasts in the region between the northern and southern states domestic division between dynamic and backward areas and the increasing emphasis on the opening up of frontier regions Wide in scope and including detailed and informative chronologies this book will prove an invaluable asset to students of European history and economics Life's

State Collapse and Reconstruction in the Periphery Jens Stilhoff Sørensen, 2009-05-01 In the 1990s Yugoslavia which had once been a role model for development became a symbol for state collapse external intervention and post war reconstruction Today the region has two international protectorates contested states and borders severe ethnic polarization and minority concerns In this first in depth critical analysis of international administration aid and reconstruction policies in Kosovo Jens Stilhoff Sørensen argues that the region must be analyzed as a whole and that the process of state collapse and recent changes in aid policy must be interpreted in connection to the wider transformation of the global political economy and world order He examines the shifting inter and intracommunity relations the emergence of a political economy of conflict and of informal clientelist arrangements in Serbia and Kosovo and provides a framework for interpreting the collapse of the Yugoslav state the emergence of ethnic conflict and shadow economies and the character of western aid and intervention Western governments and agencies have built policies on conceptions and assumptions for which there is no genuine historical or contemporary economic social or political basis in the region As the author persuasively argues this discrepancy has exacerbated and cemented problems in the region and provided further complications that are likely to remain for years to come Living in a hut in 21st Century South Africa Monde Ndandani, 2015-03-01 This book takes a closer look at a hut homestead and a hut village examining the socio economic political and cultural life of their inhabitants Debating the End of Yugoslavia Florian Bieber, Armina Galijaš, 2016-05-13 Countries rarely disappear off the map In the 20th century only a few countries shared this fate with Yugoslavia The dissolution of Yugoslavia led to the largest war in Europe since 1945 massive human rights violations and over 100 000 victims Debating the End of Yugoslavia is less an attempt to re write the dissolution of Yugoslavia or to provide a different narrative than to take stock and reflect on the scholarship to date New sources and data offer fresh avenues of research avoiding the passion of the moment that often characterized research published during the wars and provide contemporary perspectives on the dissolution The book outlines the state of the debate rather than focusing on controversies alone and maps how different scholarly communities have reflected on the dissolution of the country what arguments remain open in scholarly discourse and highlights new innovative paths to study the period The New Bosnian Mosaic Elissa Helms, 2016-02-17 Since the violent events of the Bosnian war and the revelations of ethnic cleansing that shocked the world in the early 1990s Bosnia has become a metaphor for the new ethnic nationalisms for the transformation of warfare in the post Cold War era and for new forms of peacekeeping and state building This book is unique in offering a re examination of the Bosnian case with a bottom up perspective It gathers together cultural anthropologists and other social scientists to consider the specificities of the Bosnian case However the book also raises broader questions what are the consequences of internecine violence and how should societies attempt to overcome them Are the uncertainties and the transformations of Bosnian post war society due entirely to the war or are they related to wider processes encompassing post communist Europe as a whole And are the difficulties experienced by international state building operations mainly due to distinctive features of the local societies or are they due to the policies promoted by the international community itself

Turbo-folk Music and Cultural Representations of National Identity in Former Yugoslavia Uroš Čvoro, 2016-03-03 Turbo folk music is the most controversial form of popular culture in the new states of former Yugoslavia Theoretically ambitious and innovative this book is a new account of popular music that has been at the centre of national political and cultural debates for over two decades Beginning with 1970s Socialist Yugoslavia Uro voro explores the cultural and political paradoxes of turbo folk described as backward music whose misogynist and Serb nationalist iconography represents a threat to cosmopolitanism turbo folk s iconography is also perceived as a genuinely Balkan form of resistance to the threat of neo liberalism Taking as its starting point turbo folk s popularity across national borders voro analyses key songs and performers in Serbia Slovenia and Croatia The book also examines the effects of turbo on the broader cultural sphere including art film sculpture and architecture twenty years after its inception and popularization What is proposed is a new way of reading the relationship of contemporary popular music to processes of cultural political and social change and a new understanding of how fundamental turbo folk is to the recent history of former Yugoslavia and its successor states

Women and the Jet Age Phil Tiemeyer, 2025-07-15 Women and the Jet Age is a global history of postwar aviation that examines how states nurtured airlines for competing political and economic goals during the Cold War While previous histories almost exclusively stress US and Western European aviation progress Phil Tiemeyer examines how smaller poorer states in socialist Eastern Europe and in the postcolonial Global South utilized airlines of their own to forge rival pathways to modernization Part of this modernization involved norms for working women Stewardesses at airlines around the globe encountered novel threats to their dignity as the Jet Age approached By the late 1960s stewardesses endured harsh objectification High hemlines tight uniforms and raunchy marketing were touted as modern and liberated These women whether from the West East or South forged their own pathways to achieve greater dignity at work In Women and the Jet Age Tiemeyer s global account of the rise of air travel and of early feminist strivings

Who Ran the Cities? Ralf Roth, 2017-03-02 The question of who actually ran cities in the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries has been increasingly debated in recent years As well as trying to understand the distribution of political power and the rise of broad political participation urban historians have questioned how and whether elites retained influence in municipal government The essays in this collection provide a detailed examination of the relationship between urban elites and the exercise of power bringing together economic social and cultural history with the political history of power resources and decision making The volume challenges common perceptions of a monolithic urban elite by looking at specific case studies Collectively these essays provide a more sophisticated view of the exercise of urban power as the negotiation of various elite groups defined by their economic social political or cultural privilege To contribute to this complex account of the history of cities elites and their influence the collection applies a range of methodological approaches to studying European and American cities as well as the wider world
