American Military History Daniel K. Blewett, 2008-12-30 In this companion volume to his 1995 bibliography of the same title Daniel Blewett continues his foray into the vast literature of military studies As did its predecessor it covers land air and naval forces primarily but not exclusively from a U S perspective with the welcome emergence of small wars from publishing obscurity In addition to identifying relevant organizations and associations Blewett has gathered together the very best in chronologies bibliographies biographical dictionaries indexes journals abstracts glossaries and encyclopedias each accompanied by a brief descriptive annotation This work remains a pertinent addition to the general reference collections of public and academic libraries as well as special libraries government documents collections military and intelligence agency libraries and historical societies and museums

Understanding Victory and Defeat in Contemporary War Jan Angstrom, Isabelle Duyvesteyn, 2006-12-05 Bringing together leading contributors in the field this new volume analyzes how victory and defeat in modern war can be understood and explained It does so by confronting two inter related research problems the nature of victory and defeat in modern war and the explanations of victory and defeat By first questioning the extent to which the concepts of victory and defeat are meaningful to describe the outcomes of modern wars and whether the contents of these concepts are changing it then evaluates different theories purporting to explain the outcomes of war and the impact of variables ranging from technology to culture The book tackles several key questions What is the definition of victory in the War on Terror What is the meaning of victory and defeat in contemporary insurgencies such as those in Iraq and Afghanistan Are the counterstrategies that were developed in the mid twentieth century valid in order to deal with present and future conflicts With case studies ranging from the Malayan Emergency to the current conflict in Iraq Understanding Victory and Defeat in Contemporary War will be of great interest to students of war and conflict studies security studies military history and international relations

Narrating War and Peace in Africa Solimar Otero, 2010

Narrating War and Peace in Africa interrogates conventional representations of Africa and African culture mainly in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries with an emphasis on portrayals of conflict and peace While Africa has experienced political and social turbulence throughout its history more recent conflicts seem to reinforce the myth of barbarism across the continent in Nigeria Rwanda Somalia Sierra Leone Uganda Kenya Mozambique Chad South Africa Zimbabwe and Sudan The essays in this volume address reductive and stereotypical assumptions of postcolonial violence as tribal in nature and offer instead various perspectives across disciplinary boundaries that foster a less fetishized more contextualized understanding of African war peace and memory Through their geographical historical and cultural scope and diversity the chapters in Narrating War and Peace in Africa aim to challenge negative stereotypes that abound in relation to Africa in general and to its wars and conflicts in particular encouraging a shift to more balanced and nuanced representations of the continent and its political and social climates Contributors Ann Albuyeh Zermarie Deacon Alicia C Decker Am na Mo nfar Kayode Omoniyi Ogunfolabi Sabrina Parent Susan Rasmussen Michael Sharp Cheryl Sterling Hetty ter Haar Melissa Tully Pamela Wadende Metasebia Woldemariam Jonathan Zilberg Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Hetty ter Haar is an independent researcher in England

International Peacekeeping: The Yearbook of International Peace Operations Harvey Langholtz, Boris Kondoch, Alan Wells, 2004-11-01 International Peacekeeping is devoted to reporting upon and analyzing international peacekeeping with an emphasis upon legal and policy issues but is not limited to these issues It is recognized that in today's world there is a wealth of information available from the internet and through other sources It is therefore the goal of this Yearbook to make this information available in one publication which both organizes and records events over the course of a year through analytical articles a chronicle primary documents and a bibliography Topics include inter alia peacekeeping peace war conflict resolution diplomacy international law international security humanitarian relief humanitarian law and terrorism The Yearbook is of scholarly quality but is not narrowly theoretical It provides the interested public diplomats civil servants politicians the military academics journalists NGO employees and serious citizens with a document of record comment and a starting point for further research on peacekeeping and related topics This is achieved not only by the provision of basic documents on CD ROM such as Security Council Resolutions and Reports of the UN Secretary General but also by expert commentaries on world events Peacekeeping is treated in a pragmatic light seen as a form of international military cooperation for the preservation or restoration of international peace and security Attention is focused not only on UN peacekeeping operations but other missions as well This Yearbook is the continuation of the journal International Peacekeeping

The History of Cartography, Volume 6 Mark Monmonier, 2015-05-18 For more than thirty years the History of Cartography Project has charted the course for scholarship on cartography bringing together research from a variety of disciplines on the creation dissemination and use of maps Volume 6 Cartography in the Twentieth Century continues this tradition with a groundbreaking survey of the century just ended and a new full color encyclopedic format The twentieth century is a pivotal period in map history The transition from paper to digital formats led to previously unimaginable dynamic and interactive maps Geographic information systems radically altered cartographic institutions and reduced the skill required to create maps Satellite positioning and mobile communications revolutionized wayfinding Mapping evolved as an important tool for coping with complexity organizing knowledge and influencing public opinion in all parts of the globe and at all levels of society Volume 6 covers these changes comprehensively while thoroughly demonstrating the far reaching effects of maps on science technology and society and vice versa The lavishly produced volume includes more than five hundred articles accompanied by more than a thousand images Hundreds of expert contributors provide both original research often based on their own participation in the developments they describe and interpretations of larger trends in cartography Designed for use by both scholars and the general public this definitive volume is a reference work of first resort for all who study and love maps A Troubled Sleep James Waller,2021 Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork comparative research and over 110 hours of face to face interviews with a diverse range of political academic civil society and community actors across Northern Ireland Waller revisits one of the world s most deeply divided societies to analyze Northern Ireland s current vulnerabilities and points of resilience as an allegedly post conflict society Interventions E. Castelli,J. Jakobsen,2004-11-26 This collection brings together top scholars to discuss the significance of violence from a global perspective and the intersections between the global structures of violence and more localized and intimate forms of violence Activists and academics consider questions such as are there situations in which violence should be politically supported Are non violent or anti war movements in the US able to effectively respond to violence Do we need to rethink our understanding of both religion and secularism in light of the current world situation Have new paradigms been developed in response to violence The essays in this collection offer inclusive analysis of particular situations and creative alternatives to the omnipresence of violence New Directions for International Relations Bruce Russett,Alex Mintz,2005-02-11 Why does the academic study of international relations have limited impact on the policy community When research results are inconsistent inconclusive and contradictory a lack of scholarly consensus discourages policy makers the business community and other citizens from trusting findings and conclusions from IR research In New Directions for International Relations Alex Mintz and Bruce Russett identify differences in methods of analysis as one cause of these problematic results They discuss the problem and set the stage for nine chapters by diverse scholars to demonstrate innovative new developments in IR theory and creative new methods that can lay the basis for greater consensus Looking at areas of concern such as the relationship between lawmaking and the use of military force the challenge of suppressing extremists without losing moderates and the public health effects of civil conflict contributors show how international relations research can generate reliable results that can be and in fact are used in the real world Encyclopedia of Global Studies Helmut K. Anheier,Mark Juergensmeyer,2012-03-09 With all entries followed by cross references and further reading lists this current resource is ideal for high school and college students looking for connecting ideas and additional sources on them The work brings together the many facets of global studies into a solid reference tool and will help those developing and articulating an ideological perspective Library Journal The Encyclopedia of Global Studies is the reference work for the emerging field of global studies It covers both transnational topics and intellectual approaches to the study of global themes including the globalization of economies and technologies the diaspora of cultures and dispersion of peoples the transnational aspects of social and political change the global impact of environmental technological and health changes and the organizations and issues related to global civil society Key Themes Global civil society Global communications transportation technology Global conflict and security Global culture media Global demographic change Global economic issues Global environmental and energy issues Global governance and world order Global health and nutrition Global historical antecedents Global justice and legal issues Global religions beliefs ideologies Global studies Identities in global society Readership Students and academics in the fields of politics and international relations international business geography and environmental studies sociology and cultural studies and health Collins Atlas of Twentieth Century World History Michael L. Dockrill, 1991 War, Peace & Prosperity in the Name of God Murat Iyigun, 2015-05-07 Differences among religious communities have motivated and continue to motivate many of the deadliest conflicts in human history But how did political power and organized religion become so thoroughly intertwined And how have religion and religiously motivated conflicts affected the evolution of societies throughout history from demographic and sociopolitical change to economic growth War Peace and Prosperity in the Name of God turns the focus on the big three monotheisms Judaism Islam and Christianity to consider these questions Chronicling the relatively rapid spread of the Abrahamic religions among the Old World Murat Iyigun shows that societies that adhered to a monotheistic belief in that era lasted longer suggesting that monotheism brought some sociopolitical advantages While the inherent belief in one true god meant that these religious communities had sooner or later to contend with one another Iyigun shows that differences among them were typically strong enough to trump disagreements within The book concludes by documenting the long term repercussions of these dynamics for the organization of societies and their politics in Europe and the Middle East Transatlantic Diplomacy and the Use of Military Force in the Post-Cold War Era M. Wintz, 2010-10-11 This book is an analysis and a set of tools of analysis to explain and understand why when where and how the United States and its major NATO allies will agree or disagree on a collective policy regarding using military force abroad Global Security Upheaval Robert Mandel, 2013-04-03 This book calls into question the commonly held contentions that central governments are the most important or even the sole sources of a nation's stability and that subnational and transnational nonstate forces are a major source of global instability By assessing recent real world trends Mandel reveals that areas exist where it makes little sense to rely on state governments for stability and that attempts to bolster such governments to promote stability often prove futile He demonstrates how armed nonstate groups can sometimes provide local stability better than states and how power sharing arrangements between states and armed nonstate groups may sometimes be viable He concludes that these trends in the international setting call for major shifts in our understanding of what constitutes stable governance proposing that we adopt a fluid emergent actor approach And he calls for significant deviation from standard policy responses to the opportunities and dangers posed by nontraditional sources of national authority

Peacebuilding and Civil Society in Bosnia-Herzegovina Martina Fischer (historicus),2006 The Dayton Accords ended the war in Bosnia Herzegovina in 1995 The 10th anniversary gives reason to investigate the post war period today s realities and future perspectives Bosnian authors and international experts express their views on recent developments Insiders and outsiders working in the conflict and on its transformation have been invited to tackle the questions Which conflict lines mark the present society Did peacebuilding activities address the underlying causes What are obstacles for conflict transformation What are the potentials and limits of international support What does civil society mean in Bosnia and how is it related to statebuilding and democratisation How can people constructively deal with the past in order to design the future in the region of former Yugoslavia The book gives an overview on an important research focus of the Berghof Research Center highlighting the work of its most important cooperation partners

Meanings of War and Peace Francis A. Beer,2001 When the stakes of public words and actions are global and permanent and especially when they involve war and peace can we afford not to seek their meaning For three decades Francis Beer has pioneered the effort to discover describe and connect pieces of the complex puzzle of war peace their interrelationship and their causes In this volume Beer joined by colleagues as co authors of some chapters examines the cognitive behavioral and linguistic dimensions of war and peace Language he shows is important because it mediates between thought and action It expresses beliefs about war and peace and affects the perceptions of potential adversaries about one s own intentions Using multiple perspectives and methods he explores the uses of communication in international relations and the development of meaning for war and peace In this unique and innovative post realist analysis Beer examines how language transmits and creates meaning through interaction with specific audiences His case studies include the Somalian intervention Sarajevo and the Balkan conflict and the Gulf War Moving beyond the discrete words of war the book takes a broader view of how political participants interact in war and peace through continuous streams of communication that reflect and construct worlds of meaning This stimulating and challenging volume brings together insights and evidence from political science cognitive psychology linguistics history and rhetorical studies and applies them in a focused way to the problem of war and peace
