Brown,1996-01-01 In Volume I of this two volume set James A Brown reports on and interprets decades of archaeological investigation at the Spiro Ceremonial Center a major site along the Arkansas River in eastern Oklahoma In Volume 2 he describes the archaeological collections in detail covering burials ceramics stone tools pipes beads textiles ornaments and animal bone Foreword by James B Griffin Contributions by Alice M Brues Lyle W Konigsberg Paul W Parmalee and David H Stansbery Preliminary Evaluation of Chemical Migration to Groundwater and the Niagara River from Selected Waste-disposal Sites ,1986 Union Oil Project/Exxon Project Shamrock and Central Santa Maria Basin Area Study ,1985 Native American Interactions Michael S. Nassaney,Kenneth E. Sassaman,1995 While the early cultural clashes between Native Americans and Europeans have long engaged scholars far less attention has been paid to interactions among indigenous peoples themselves prior to the contact period The essays in this volume derived largely from the 1992 meeting of the Southeastern Archaeological Conference mark a major step in correcting that imbalance Long before Europeans sailed west in search of the East Native Americans of various ethnic groups were encountering each other and interacting socially both amicably and otherwise Over the course of ten thousand years from Paleoindian to Mississippian times these interactions had a profound effect on the historical development of these societies and their material culture social relations and institutions of integration In probing such encounters the contributors reject reductive models and instead combine a variety of theoretical orientations including world systems theory Marxist analysis and ecosystems approaches with empirical evidence from the archaeological record Apocalyptic Chic Barbara Brodman, James E. Doan, 2017-10-10 This book deals with legends and images of the apocalypse and post apocalypse in film and graphic arts literature and lore from early to modern times and from peoples and cultures around the world It reflects an increasingly popular leitmotif in literature and visual arts of the 21st century humanity's fear of extinction and its quest for survival in revenant supernatural or living human form It is the logical continuation of a series of collected essays examining the origins and evolution of myths and legends of the supernatural in Western and non Western tradition and popular culture The first two volumes of the series The Universal Vampire Origins and Evolution of a Legend Fairleigh Dickinson University Press 2013 and Images of the Modern Vampire The Hip and the Atavistic Fairleigh Dickinson University Press 2013 focused on the vampire legend The third The Supernatural Revamped From Timeworn Legends to Twenty First Century Chic 2016 focused on a range of supernatural beings in literature film and other forms of popular culture

Archaeology on the Great Plains W. Raymond Wood, 1998-07-29 Stretching from the Gulf of Mexico to central Canada North America's great interior grasslands were home to nomadic hunters and semisedentary farmers for almost 11 500 years before the arrival of Euro American settlers Pan continental trade between these hunters and horticulturists helped make the lifeways of Plains Indians among the richest and most colorful of Native Americans This volume is the first attempt to synthesize current knowledge on the cultural history of the Great Plains since Wedel's Prehistoric Man on the Great Plains became the standard reference on the subject almost forty years ago Fourteen authors have undertaken the task of examining archaeological phenomena through time and by region to present a systematic overview of the region's human history Focusing on habitat and cultural diversity and on the changing archaeological record they reconstruct how people responded to the varying environment climate and biota of the grasslands to acquire the resources they needed to survive The contributors have analyzed archaeological artifacts and other evidence to present a systematic overview of human history in each of the five key Plains regions Southern Central Middle Missouri Northeastern and Northwestern They review the Paleo Indian Archaic Woodland and Plains Village peoples and tell how their cultural traditions have continued from ancient to modern times Each essay covers technology diet settlement and adaptive patterns to give readers an understanding of the differences and similarities among groups The story of Plains peoples is brought into historical focus by showing the impacts of Euro American contact notably acquisition of the horse and exposure to new diseases Featuring 85 maps and illustrations Archaeology on the Great Plains is an exceptional introduction to the field for students and an indispensable reference for specialists It enhances our understanding of how the Plains shaped the adaptive strategies of peoples through time and fosters a greater appreciation for their cultures      Legislative Branch Appropriations for 2012: Justification of the budget estimates United States. Congress. House.
