Twenty-six Years' Reminiscences of Scotch Grouse Moors W. A. Adams,1889 My grouse shooting days are now past Increasing years and rheumatic muscles remind me that I have had my time and a very good time too so now let younger men take my place and profit by my experience if it should so please them Let us look back on grouse shooting twenty six years ago Scotland so far as regards the sporting of the far north was then almost a terra incognita Railways ended at Inverness and to get there needed a journey to Aberdeen and from there by the slowest of slow railways but quick enough life was not run at so fast a pace as now The more remote districts of the north and west of Scotland were as unknown as the wilds of Labrador Previous to that time grouse shooting was for the few we were content with our English shootings and very nice and pleasant they were Every farmer if the shooting was in his take preserved his game he shot it or he let it The stubbles were long and full of weeds the old pastures full of feg and there was plenty of clover but turnips not so much grown as now excepting in the eastern counties about which I know very little the hedges and ditches not kept clean as they are now

Turned Out Nice Marek Kohn,2010-06-03 Marek Kohn one of the best science writers we have AC Grayling paints an important and eye opening portrait of Britain and Ireland after a century of global warming Author of A Reason for Everything and Four Words for Friend Marek Kohn projects one hundred years into the future when based on the climate change evidence we have now some parts of Britain will be like regions of today s Mediterranean But more disturbingly our parks will be arid brown fields private automobile use will probably be unheard of water will be severely rationed significant stretches of our beloved coastline will have been sacrificed to the sea Floods on these coasts and in certain river valleys will make them uninhabitable Some of our flora and fauna will have vanished exotic animals and pests will flourish Human climate migration will have become a significant fact of life as other continents become harsher places to survive in Surveillance and restriction of our movements will be taken for granted Walking in what is left of nature will be nearly impossible As climate activism including Greta Thunberg s school strikes and Extinction Rebellion s mass protests gathers pace worldwide in the light of a growing climate emergency Turned Out Nice is more relevant than ever an urgent report from the near future that we cannot afford to ignore It will change the way you think about the climate and global warming An imaginative journey through different parts of the British Isles crammed with detail A good primer for anyone who wants to think about the British future without being suicidal or consciously blinkered Andrew Marr Financial Times Graphic gripping Kohn warns against the current complacency of short term thinking and temporising inactivity The Times Our Feathered Families: ... With ... Illustrations, Etc Henry Gardiner ADAMS,1863 Our feathered families Henry Gardiner Adams,1863 Reptiles and Birds Parker Gillmore,2023-10-21 Reprint of the original first published in 1873
