The Gospel of Matthew John Nolland, 2005-11-01 Having devoted the past ten years of his life to research for this major new work John Nolland gives us a commentary on the Gospel of Matthew that engages with a notable range of Matthean scholarship and offers fresh interpretations of the dominant Gospel in the history of the church Without neglecting the Gospel's sources or historical background Nolland places his central focus on the content and method of Matthew's story His work explores Matthew's narrative technique and the inner logic of the unfolding text giving full weight to the Jewish character of the book and its differences from Mark's presentation of parallel material While finding it unlikely that the apostle Matthew himself composed the book Nolland does argue that Matthew's Gospel reflects the historical ministry of Jesus with considerable accuracy and he brings to the table new evidence for an early date of composition Including accurate translations based on the latest Greek text detailed verse by verse comments thorough bibliographies for each section and an array of insightful critical approaches Nolland's Gospel of Matthew will stimulate students preachers and scholars seeking to understand more fully Matthew's presentation of the gospel narrative

Introduction to the Bible Stephen J.

Binz, 2017-06-15 Catholics are often reluctant to begin reading the Bible this is for various reasons Perhaps we hang on to the notion that the Bible is a book meant for display for recording the dates of family members births baptisms marriages and deaths Or perhaps we once attempted to read the Bible and discovered there a culture entirely different from ours and came to the conclusion that the Bible had nothing relevant to say to us in this place and time Attentive to these and the many other reasons Catholics might give for not reading Scripture Stephen Binz offers practical explanations that will make the Bible less foreign and more familiar Introduction to the Bible allows readers to discover how the Bible came to be how to choose a

Bible translation how to interpret the Bible within Catholic tradition and how to benefit the most from Bible study Readers will find practical explanations that will make the Bible less foreign and more familiar Stephen J Binz is a Catholic biblical scholar speaker and counselor He did graduate studies at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and is a member of the Catholic Biblical Association and the Society of Biblical Literature Binz is the author of numerous books on the Bible including The Passion and Resurrection Narratives of Jesus and The God of Freedom and Life both published by Liturgical Press
