This diverse and exciting Passover resource features the traditional Haggadah Hebrew text with a new translation designed to let you know exactly what the Haggadah says. Introductory essays help you understand the historical roots of Passover, the development of the Haggadah, and how to make sense out of texts and customs that evolved from ancient times. Framed with beautifully designed Talmud-style pages, My People's Passover Haggadah features commentaries by scholars from all denominations of Judaism. You are treated to insights by experts in such fields as the Haggadah's history, its biblical roots, its confrontation with modernity, and its relationship to rabbinic midrash and Jewish law, feminism, Chasidism, theology, and kabbalah. No other resource provides such a wide-ranging exploration of the Haggadah: a reservoir of inspiration and information for creating meaningful Seders every year. The Haggadah is a book not just of the Jewish People but of ordinary Jewish people. It is a book we all own: handle, store at home, and spill wine upon. Pick up a Siddur and you have the history of our People writ large; pick up a Haggadah and you have the same but also the chronicle of Jewish life writ small: the story of families and friends whose Seders have become their very own local cultural legacy. My People's Passover Haggadah is for each and every person looking to enrich their annual experience of Passover in their own unique way.

Passover or Pesach is the first of seven appointed feasts of the Lord ordained by the Lord to commemorate the departure of the Hebrew nation from Egypt. As commanded in the Torah: "You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days; you are to eat unleavened bread as I commanded you at the appointed time in the month Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. And they shall not appear before Me empty-handed." Exodus 23:15. The Torah, the first five books of Moses, is the written word of God and the instructions and rituals for the holidays were passed down in the oral law. Every year in the spring, Jews around the world will prepare a seder as a memorial to the original Passover event and in the same prescribed order given at Mt. Sinai over 3,000 years ago. It is important to God that the teachings and history of the Jewish people be preserved and passed down to all generations. As we read through the Haggadah, you will notice the introduction of a dash in the spellings of God and Lord. According to Jewish law and tradition, it was forbidden to erase or discard any written document with the names of our Creator or even speak His
