

Peeping Tom

I rise before the morning sun
Peeping tom, became a lot of fun
I watch her every move by the day
Knowing soon she'll be my prey

She drives through town without a clue
That I'm attached and stuck like glue
Late night I watch her shower
I know she'll be in bed in less than an hour

She puts that silk red gown on
As she talks to her lover over the phone
"I love you more than anything" she said
Than hung up and went to bed

I opened the window slowly
Approach her surely
"Shhh don't you scream"
It's your turn, you shouldn't have trusted me

"Babe please don't do it" she cries
I choked her until lights went off her eyes
I disappeared into the night
Than went online and chatted to the next victim of mine

1965-2010 Lucille Clifton, 2015-06-20 Winner of the 2013 Hurston Wright Legacy Award for Poetry The Collected Poems of Lucille Clifton 1965 2010 may be the most important book of poetry to appear in years Publishers Weekly All poetry readers will want to own this book almost everything is in it Publishers Weekly If you only read one poetry book in 2012 The Collected Poems of Lucille Clifton ought to be it NPR The Collected Clifton is a gift not just for her fans but for all of us The Washington Post The love readers feel for Lucille Clifton both the woman and her poetry is constant and deeply felt The lines that surface most frequently in praise of her work and her person are moving declarations of racial pride courage steadfastness Toni Morrison from the Foreword The Collected Poems of Lucille Clifton 1965 2010 combines all eleven of Lucille Clifton's published collections with more than fifty previously unpublished poems The unpublished poems feature early poems from 1965 1969 a collection in progress titled the book of days 2008 and a poignant selection of final poems An insightful foreword by Nobel Prize winning author Toni Morrison and comprehensive afterword by noted poet Kevin Young frames Clifton's lifetime body of work providing the definitive statement about this major America poet's career On February 13 2010 the poetry world lost one of its most distinguished members with the passing of Lucille Clifton In the last year of her life she was named the first African American woman to receive the 100 000 Ruth Lilly Poetry Prize honoring a US poet whose lifetime accomplishments warrant extraordinary recognition and was posthumously awarded the Robert Frost Medal for lifetime achievement from the Poetry Society of America mother tongue to man kind from the unpublished the book of days all that I am asking is that you see me as something more than a common occurrence more than a woman in her ordinary skin

The Complete Poems Robert Graves, 2015-01-29 Graves described poetry as his ruling passion and for him love was the main theme and origin of true poems He created a rich mythology where love fear fantasy and the supernatural play an essential role Intimate yet universal passionate yet precise their brilliant alchemy of realism and magic made Graves s poems some of the finest of the last century In this edition the poems appear without critical apparatus or commentary The volume represents in its purest form the achievement of Graves s seventy productive years Complete Poems John Keats, 1991-01-01 Here is the first edition of Keats s complete poems expressly for general readers and students Stillinger provides explanatory notes to the poems which give dates of composition identify quotations and allusions gloss names and words not found in an ordinary desk dictionary and refer the reader to the best critical interpretations of the poems

The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in depth examination of Carver s poems making a case for the quality of Carver s poetic output and showing the central role Carver s pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter relatedness of biological and cultural systems This idea is seen as informing Carver s entire production and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe s book is its contextualization of Carver s poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver s poetry and short story careers situates Carver s poetry within the love poem tradition explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories and examines Carver s use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness Tellingly Carver s poetry which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars is frequently taught to medical students This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver s work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe s culminating discussion of Carver s work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine
