Sisters Making Waves:

Women Making Waves Lara Einzig, 2022-06-28 A visually stunning journey across the world's oceans featuring soulful surfers living with purpose. The women in this book are my sea sisters and I believe that by sharing these remarkable stories we inspire other women to make wiser and more empowered choices in their own lives. Kassia Meador, former pro longboarder and founder of Kassia Surf Women Making Waves, is a celebration of the sisterhood of surfing featuring extraordinary women from the United States, Philippines, Mexico, Australia, Senegal, Japan, France, and beyond. Author Lara Einzig profiles more than two dozen inspiring female surfers from around the globe, from activists to artists who are breaking new ground on land and finding healing joy and community in the water. There is Maya Gabeira, a Brazilian woman who surfed the biggest wave of anyone in 2020; Bonnie Wright, the British actress, activist, and author; Risa Mara Machuca, who runs a free surfing camp in Mexico for local children; and Zara Noruzi, an Iranian exile who found peace on the water in Australia. Through candid interviews on the transformational power of surfing and with immersive photography of beautiful beaches, surf shacks, and favorite breaks, Einzig captures the life-altering strength and resilience that these women discover in their connection to the waves. Women Making Waves captures the innate spiritual essence of our connection to the ocean, inviting us all to paddle out.

Murder Makes Waves Anne George, 2009-02-24 Those hilarious southern sisters who prove that sibling rivalry never ends are heading for a vacation at the beach. Mary Alice's flamboyant behavior aside, serious sensible Patricia Anne looks forward to relaxing at her sister's beachfront condo in Destin, Florida, so she kisses her ever-loving spouse Fred goodbye, reminds him to water the plants and feed the dog, and the girls head south for some fin in the sun. Mary Alice loses no time in making the acquaintance of just about everyone in sight, so watching the sun go down on the beautiful shores of the Gulf of Mexico is a welcome respite as far as Patricia Anne is concerned until a dead body washes up in the waves and the victim turns out to be one of Mary Alice's newfound friends. With no witnesses but the crime except a few great blue herons, the sisters have no choice but to bypass the clueless police and follow their own instinct to find the killer. Before long, they're on a murky trail of dirty real estate deals, giant turtle habitats, and a sea of evidence pointing to a mammoth motive for murder.

Nolan Sisters, and, Making waves The Nolan Sisters, 2009 The Vatarad Sisters J.-K. Huysmans, 2021-12-14 Les Soeurs Vatarad described by its author as a lewd but exact slice of life was J. K. Huysmans' second novel. Huysmans abandoned poetry and turned to the novel at a time when the works of Emile Zola were intensely controversial. Les Soeurs Vatarad is dedicated to Zola by his fervent admirer and devoted friend. In it, Huysmans vividly depicts the scene that for his generation of French writers stood for the contemporary world: the brutal, teeming life of the industrial quarters of Paris in the 1870s. Vatarad sisters are D, sir, e, an urchin of fifteen, a brunette with large, pale eyes that were somewhat crossed, plump without being fat, attractive and clean; and C, line, the carouser, a big girl with clear eyes and hair the color of straw, a solid, vigorous girl whose blood raced and danced in her veins. The two are part of that bizarre race of young women who work as bookbinders whose lives revolve around the gaslighted bindery works the gaudy shop windows and cheap wineshops that Huysmans describes with minute and colorful detail His precisely observed sketches show that Naturalism as practiced by Buysmans had none of Zola's emphasis on scientific determinism but centered primarily on the faithful rendering of what he described as living persons in real milieus The Vatard Sisters is the first English translation of Les Soeurs Vatard

Making Waves Sali A. Queer TV China Jamie J. Zhao, 2023-02-16 The 2010s have seen an explosion in popularity of Chinese television featuring same sex intimacies LGBTQ identified celebrities and explicitly homoerotic storylines even as state regulations on vulgar and immoral content grow more prominent This emerging queer TV China culture has generated diverse cyber and transcultural queer fan communities Yet these seemingly progressive televisual productions and practices are caught between multilayered sociocultural and political economic forces and interests Taking queer as a verb an adjective and a noun this volume counters the Western centric conception of homosexuality as the only way to understand nonnormative identities and same sex desire in the Chinese and Sinophone worlds It proposes an analytical framework of queer ing TV China to explore the power of various TV genres and narratives censorial practices and fandoms in queer desire voicing and subject formation within a largely heteropatriarchal society Through examining nine cases contesting the ideals of gender sexuality Chineseness and TV production and consumption the book also reveals the generative negotiative ways in which queerness works productively within and against mainstream seemingly heterosexual oriented televisual industries and fan spaces This cornucopia of fresh and original essays opens our eyes to the burgeoning queer television culture thriving beneath official media crackdowns in China As diverse as the phenomenon it analyses Queer TV China is the spark that will ignite a prairie fire of future scholarship Chris Berry Professor of Film Studies King's College London This timely volume explores the various possibilities and nuances of queerness in Chinese TV and fannish culture Challenging the dichotomy of positive and negative representations of gender and sexual minorities Queer TV China argues for a multilayered and queer informed understanding of the production consumption censorship and recreation of Chinese television today Geng Song Associate Professor and Director of Translation Program University of Hong Kong
