Site Perspectives:

Evolving Psychological and Educational Perspectives on Cyber Behavior Zheng, Robert Z.,2012-07-31 This book identifies learners online behavior based on the theories in human psychology defines online education phenomena as explained by the social and cognitive learning theories and principles and interprets the complexity of cyber learning Provided by publisher

Practice Theory Perspectives on Pedagogy and Education Peter Grootenboer,Christine Edwards-Groves,Sarojini Choy,2017-01-16 This book examines the way in which the practice turn in education and pedagogy offers unique perspectives on the nature of educational work Through a plurality of practice theories deeper understandings emerge about a range of education and concepts providing useful tools for advancing and developing practice theory in education and pedagogy The book discusses the related and dual perspectives of pedagogy as both a teaching and an upbringing practice It also explores education in a range of contexts and sectors beyond school including VET tertiary and non formal settings Education is seen as serving a dual purpose the development of individuals and the betterment of societies and community and this conceptualisation of education underpins the book It acknowledges that there are diverse understandings and perspectives of practice theory pedagogy and education each of which is contestable and ripe for further development and this is examined throughout the book This book was developed alongside an invited symposium held in June 2015 in Brisbane Australia where the authors and interested others gathered to discuss practice theory perspectives on pedagogy and education The title Practice Theory Perspectives on Pedagogy and Education captures the central overarching focus that underpins the book     New Perspectives on the Research of Chinese Culture Pei-kai Cheng,Ka Wai Fan,2012-12-14

This volume contains high quality articles originally published in Chinese in the Chinese Journal Jiuzhou Xuelin Chinese Cultural Quarterly and new articles written on special invitation by established scholars in the field The theme of the volume is New Perspectives on Research of Chinese Culture introducing the latest trends and new developments in the research into Chinese history humanities music and geography The articles are written by well known scholars in the field who examine Chinese culture from various new perspectives adopting different research methods     Indigenous Perspectives on Sacred Natural Sites Jonathan Liljeblad,Bas Verschuuren,2018-12-17 Much previous literature on sacred natural sites has been written from a non indigenous perspective In contrast this book facilitates a greater self expression of indigenous perspectives regarding treatment of the sacred and its protection and governance in the face of threats from various forms of natural resource exploitation and development It provides indigenous custodians the opportunity to explain how they view and treat the sacred through a written account that is available to a global audience It thus illuminates similarities and differences of both definitions interpretations and governance approaches regarding sacred natural phenomena and their conservation The volume presents an international range of case studies from the recent controversy of pipeline construction at Standing Rock a sacred site for the Sioux people spanning North and South Dakota to others located in Australia Canada

East Timor Hawaii India Mexico Myanmar Nigeria and the Philippines Each chapter includes an analytical introduction and conclusion written by the editors to identify common themes unique insights and key messages The book is therefore a valuable teaching resource for students of indigenous studies anthropology religion heritage human rights and law nature conservation and environmental protection It will also be of great interest to professionals and NGOs concerned with nature and heritage conservation     Comparative Perspectives on E-Government Peter Hernon, Rowena Cullen, Harold C.

Relyea, 2006-03-09 E government is a product of the Internet age and Comparative Perspectives on E Government identifies the various facets of e government comparing developments among five countries Australia UK Canada New Zealand and the US E government is a more complex rich phenomena than previously recognized     Environmental Health Perspectives, 1993     Archaeological Perspectives on the Southern Appalachians Ramie A. Gougeon, Maureen Meyers, 2015-03-10

This volume demonstrates how archaeologists working in the Southern Appalachian region over the past 40 years have developed rich interpretations of prehistoric and historic Southeastern Native societies by examining them from multiple scales of analysis The end results of these examinations demonstrate both the uses and the constraints of multiscalar approaches in reconstructing various lifeways across the Southeast     The Brain is the Screen Gregory Flaxman, 2000 In the nearly twenty years since their publication Gilles Deleuze's books about cinema have proven as daunting as they are enticing a new aesthetics of film one equally at home with Henri Bergson and Wim Wenders Friedrich Nietzsche and Orson Welles that also takes its place in the philosopher's immense and difficult oeuvre With this collection the first to focus solely and extensively on Deleuze's cinematic work the nature and reach of that work finally become clear Composed of a substantial introduction twelve original essays produced for this volume and a new English translation of a personal intriguing and little known interview with Deleuze on his cinema books The Brain Is the Screen is a sustained engagement with Deleuze's cinematic philosophy that leads to a new view of the larger confrontation of philosophy with cinematic images     New Perspectives on Site Function and Scale of Cerro de Trincheras, Sonora, Mexico Maria O'Donovan, 2002 The 1991 survey of Cerro de Trincheras provided information on broad scale patterning of artifacts and architecture This information indicates that there are three general areas of the site domestic ritual and agricultural Domestic areas contain extensive refuse including shell debitage and jewelry The distribution of shell within domestic space indicates that some households were more involved in this production than others suggesting some social inequities Controlled access to ritual areas and secrecy surrounding ritual knowledge also suggest inequalities within social organization These inequalities may tie to Cerro de Trincheras role within the region and perhaps in inter regional relations Taken as a whole the evidence from Cerro de Trincheras clearly refutes theories that focus on defensive aspects as a primary factor in site type formation Cerro de Trincheras was the product of a complex web of social relations operating at multiple scales not solely for defensive needs
