The Other Side Of The Night:

The Other Side of the Night Daniel Allen Butler, 2020-01-10 The New York Times bestselling author of Unsinkable recounts the disaster from the vantage point of nearby vessels Publishers Weekly A few minutes before midnight on April 14 1912 the unsinkable RMS Titanic on her maiden voyage to New York struck an iceberg Less than three hours later she lay at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean While the world has remained fascinated by the tragedy the drama of those fateful hours was not only played out aboard the doomed liner It also took place on the decks of two other ships one fifty eight miles distant from the sinking Titanic the other barely ten miles away The masters of the steamships Carpathia and Californian Capt Arthur Rostron and Capt Stanley Lord were informed within minutes of each other that their vessels had picked up the distress signals of a sinking ship Their actions in the hours and days that followed would become the stuff of legend as one would choose to take his ship into dangerous waters to answer the call for help while the other would decide that the hazard to himself and his command was too great to risk responding After years of research Daniel Allen Butler now tells this incredible story moving from ship to ship on the icy waters of the North Atlantic in real time to recount how hundreds of people could have been rescued but in the end only a few outside of the meager lifeboats were saved He then looks at the US Senate investigation in Washington and ultimately the British Board of Trade inquiry in London where the actions of each captain are probed questioned and judged until the truth of what actually happened aboard the Titanic the Carpathia and the Californian is revealed Powerful very very well done New York Times bestselling author Clive Cussler

The Other Side of the World Mary Jo Clark,Thomas Corbett,Haywood Turrentine,2011-07 The Other Side of the World Vision and Reality embraces and celebrates the experiences of idealistic young Peace Corps volunteers as they confronted the ancient and enigmatic civilization of India four decades ago Prompted by memories and emotions tapped during a gathering on the 40 year reunion of their return to the States members of India 44 A B provide reflections that are honest compelling insightful riotous humbling and yet redemptive These reflections give expression to feelings long repressed and at the same time uncover the mysterious ways in which their service in remote India transformed and redirected the trajectory of their lives

Their stories provide a humorous and deeply moving description of village life where imperfect language skills and limited technical capabilities interacted with good intentions and stubborn dedication to produce embarrassment on the one hand and the occasional minor miracle on the other. This is not a feel good testimony to the Peace Corps on its golden anniversary. Rather it is a sobering depiction of the lives of volunteers living in one of the Peace Corps most demanding site countries where frustrations and challenges were found in abundance. Yet at the end of the day these stories generally attest to the wisdom of the Peace Corps concept which affirms the powers of volunteerism and the giving of self. For many it was the first time these volunteers had articulated their feelings since leaving India. Mary Jo Clark, Thomas Corbett, Michael Simonds and Haywood Turrentine compiled the book.
