The Hardest Lot of Men Joseph C. Fitzharris, 2019-09-05 Outstanding in appearance discipline and precision at drill the Third Minnesota Volunteer Infantry was often mistaken for a regular army unit Rebel Colonel Ponder described the regiment as the hardest lot of men he'd ever run against Betrayed by its higher commanders the Third Minnesota was surrendered to Nathan Bedford Forrest on July 13 1862 in Murfreesboro Tennessee Through letters personal accounts of the men and other sources author Joseph C Fitzharris recounts how the Minnesotans prisoners of war broken in spirit and morale went home and found redemption and renewed purpose fighting the Dakota Indians They were then sent south to fight guerrillas along the Tennessee River In the process the regiment was forged anew as a superbly drilled and disciplined unit that participated in the siege of Vicksburg and in the Arkansas Expedition that took Little Rock At Pine Bluff Arkansas sickness so reduced its numbers that the Third was twice unable to muster enough men to bury its own dead but the men never wavered in battle In both Tennessee and Arkansas the Minnesotans actively supported the U S Colored Troops USCT and provided many officers for USCT units The Hardest Lot of Men follows the Third through occupation to war's end when the returning men deeming the citizens of St Paul insufficiently appreciative spurned a celebration in their honor In this first full account of the regiment Fitzharris brings to light the true story long obscured by the official histories illustrating aspects of a nineteenth century soldier's life enlisted and commissioned alike from recruitment and training to the rigors of active duty The Hardest Lot of Men gives us an authentic picture of the Third Minnesota at once both singular and representative of its historical moment

Price,2015-01-24 Colonel Donald Gilbert Cook was the first U S Marine captured in Vietnam the first and only Marine in history to earn the Medal of Honor while in captivity and the first Marine POW to have a U S Navy ship named in his honor the USS Donald Cook DDG 75 On December 31 1964 while serving as an observer with a South Vietnamese Marine Corps battalion on a combat operation against Viet Cong forces he was captured near the village of Binh Gia in South Vietnam Until his death in captivity in December 1967 Cook led ten POWs in a series of primitive jungle camps This first book length biography concentrates especially on Cook s three years in captivity and is the first book exclusively about a Marine POW held in South Vietnam Throughout Cook s adherence to the Corps traditional leadership principles and knowledge of the Code of Conduct are highlighted His biography provides a unique case study of exemplary leadership under extremely difficult conditions Includes 68 photographs      The 1929 Sino-Soviet War Michael Walker,2021-02-01 For seven weeks in 1929 the Republic of China and the Soviet Union battled in Manchuria over control of the Chinese Eastern Railroad It was the largest military clash between China and a Western power ever fought on Chinese soil involving more than a quarter million combatants Michael M Walker s The 1929 Sino Soviet War is the first full account of what UPI s Moscow correspondent called the war nobody knew a limited modern war that destabilized the region s balance of power altered East Asian history and sent grim reverberations through a global community giving lip service to demilitarizing in the wake of World War I Walker locates the roots of the conflict in miscalculations by Chiang Kai shek and Chang Hsueh liang about the Soviets political and military power flawed assessments that prompted China s attempt to reassert full authority over the CER The Soviets on the other hand were dominated by a Stalin eager to flex some military muscle and thoroughly convinced that war would win much more than petty negotiations This was in fact Walker shows a watershed moment for Stalin his regime and his still young and untested military disproving the assumption that the Red Army was incapable of fighting a modern war By contrast the outcome revealed how unprepared the Chinese military forces were to fight either the Red Army or the Imperial Japanese Army their other primary regional competitor And yet while the Chinese commanders proved weak Walker sees in the toughness of the overmatched infantry a hint of the rising nationalism that would transform China s troops from a mercenary army into a formidable professional force with powerful implications for an overconfident Japanese Imperial Army in 1937 Using Russian Chinese and Japanese sources as well as declassified US military reports Walker deftly details the war from its onset through major military operations to its aftermath giving the first clear and complete account of a little known but profoundly consequential clash of great powers between the World Wars      The Use of Medieval

Hanna,2013-02-05 On a September day in 1813 as citizens watched from the rocky shore of Pemaquid Maine two of the last and bravest military sailing commanders engaged in a battle that would change the course of the War of 1812 Samuel Blyth was the youthful commander of His Britannic Majesty s brig Boxer and William Burrows younger still commanded the USS Enterprise Both men valued honor above all and on this day their commitment would be put to the ultimate test Though it lasted less than an hour the battle between the Boxer and the Enterprise was a brutal contest whose outcome was uncertain When the cannon smoke cleared good men had been lost and the U S Navy s role in the war had changed In Knights of the Sea David Hanna brings to life a lost era paying tribute to the young commanders who considered it the highest honor to harness the wind to meet their foes and would be immortalized by the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow The only major naval battle of the War of 1812 the battle between the Boxer and the Enterprise came to represent not only a military turning point but a maritime era that would soon be gone forever INCLUDES PHOTOS AND MAPS      The Battle for Isurava

David W. Cameron,2022-03-01 Within 24 hours of the Japanese invasion of northern New Guinea at Gona in July 1942 the Australian militiamen of B Company 39th Battalion spent four weeks fighting a delaying action against a crack Japanese force outnumbered by three to one By mid August the rest of the battalion had arrived and these men took up a position at Isurava in the heart of the cloud covered mountains and jungles of the Owen Stanley Range At Isurava this small militia force of the 39th Battalion now numbering around 300 men was determined to make a stand against a crack Japanese force of the 144th Regiment and supporting elements numbering at least 1500 Then on the day the Japanese launched their attack to the great relief of these militiamen reinforcements from the 2nd AIF who had fought with great distinction in the Middle East began to arrive in the afternoon having spent days struggling up the track from Port Moresby Even so the Australians were still outnumbered as the Japanese also received reinforcements and unlike the Japanese the Australians had no supporting artillery or medium machineguns The battle for Isurava would be the defining battle of the Kokoda Campaign and has rightfully been described as Australia s Thermopylae It was here that Australia s first Victoria Cross in the Pacific war was awarded when the Japanese conducted several ferocious attacks against the Australian perimeter Private Bruce Kingsbury led an Australian counterattack rushing forward sweeping the Japanese positions with his Bren gun saving the situation when all seemed lost he was killed leading the charge Another two men were also nominated for the VC during the fighting at Isurava The outnumbered and poorly equipped Australians managed to hold back the Japanese advance for almost a week only then did these battle scared and weary men begin a month long fighting withdraw towards Ioribaiwa Ridge just north of Port Morsby However their sacrifice provided time for the Australian 25th Brigade to be brought forward finally forcing the Japanese to withdrawal just as they glimpsed the lights of Port Moresby Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1977-07

describes how the Union cavalry became the largest best mounted and best equipped force of horse soldiers the world had ever seen The 1863 consolidation of numerous scattered Federal units created a force to be reckoned with a single corps ten thousand strong Wittenberg s research thoroughly debunks the narrative that the Confederate cavaliers were the superior force
