

A scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. A winding road curves through a valley, flanked by tall grass and hills. A bright rainbow arches across the sky, with its colors reflecting on a wet surface in the foreground. The sky is filled with soft, golden light from the low sun.

The path of least resistance is the path of the loser.

Walking the Path of Least Resistance Muriel Shickman, 2022-02-08 Life is meant to be magically creative Certainly not something to be dragged around and complain about How is your self talk Do you meditate Do you find yourself giving away energy and not receiving or vice versa How is your relationship with yourself and others As you continue to walk the labyrinth of your life you may consider taking time to rest and recalibrate your energy Being like water and moving through life in a state of least resistance is being soft and gentle with yourself receptive and pure with intention No matter what life throws at us we have a choice in it and how we react What we give attention to creates our reality and with just a few simple conscious steps you will find yourself walking gracefully in every moment When you feel good all the time not just on certain occasions When you take full responsibility for your own actions through understanding of how you create your own reality and you are doing it all the time When you are
