Congress. House. Committee on International Relations,1997 Collective Self-Defence in International Law James A. Green,2024-01-25 Collective self defence can be defined as the use of military force by one or more states to aid another state that is an innocent victim of armed attack However it is a legal justification that is open to abuse and its exercise risks escalating conflict Recent years have seen an unprecedented increase in the number of collective self defence claims It has been the main basis for US led action in Syria 2014 and was advanced by Russia in relation to its full scale invasion of Ukraine 2022 Yet there still has been little analysis of collective self defence in international law This book crucially progresses the debate on various fundamental and under explored questions about the conceptual nature of collective self defence and the requirements for its operation Green provides the most detailed and extensive account of collective self defence to date at a time when it is being invoked more than ever before CIS Index to Publications of the United States Congress Congressional Information Service,1996 CIS Annual Congressional Information Service,1995 The Path Toward Democracy in Angola United States; Congress; House; Africa,2015-07-09 Excerpt from The Path Toward Democracy in Angola Hearing Before the Subcommittee on Africa of the Committee on International Relations House of Representatives One Hundred Fourth Congress First Session July 13 1995 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 1995 United States.
