The people I've met in my life were the impetus for writing this book. They are the good, bad, and ugly people. Those I remember the most are those who were good to me and helped me along the way to become a professional broadcaster and newspaper journalist. Others were not kind and often said aloud that I would fail at achieving my goals. One relative went so far as to ask, "Why can't you hold a job?" He knew nothing of how unstable the job market was at the time for the jobs I held. It did not deter me; it fueled my desire to succeed. I knew what I wanted out of life, and that is what I am currently doing. Sadly, many who were unkind to me were unwilling to help people in need. "Coffins don't have pockets" was a phrase my parents often used. My mother said to me that she had two words of wisdom for me. They were not "thank you"; those two words were "BE NICE." It is the legacy I want to leave behind.
