The Pelicans:

The Pelicans E. M. Delafield, 1919 Alas, for the Pelicans Anne Chittleborough, 2002 In 1802 a Frenchman and an Englishman famously encountered each other off the shores of South Australia The voyages of discovery of Nicolas Baudin and Matthew Flinders opened the way for the increasingly rapid colonisation of Terra Australis The Pelican's Briefs Mark R Joneschiet, 2001-06-24 Come celebrate a town Klamath Falls Oregon official population 18 538 people that is the cows you will have to count yourself Join the author in a homespun journey through the past in a town that is the epitome of all hometowns Located on a route that is the shortest distance between Los Angeles and Seattle this town seems innocuous enough however a peak beneath its exterior reveals enough oddities quirks and interesting characters to fuel the tabloids for centuries This rendering of the author's memoirs offers shameless name dropping of well known personalities recounts of events that have local near legendary status among those involved at least and some actual history that didn't quite make it into the history books Fade into the past to an era devoid of terms such as Duuuude Sweeeeet and Da Bomb Words that will characterize this world are more like Golly Gosh Gee Whiz and Shucky Darn Let a mildly embarrassed pelican guide you on this tongue in cheek and often ironic visit to a place that isn't too far from everyone's growing up experience

Encyclopedia of Rhythm and Blues and Doo-Wop Vocal Groups Mitch Rosalsky, 2002 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide information on the cities of origin members and music of some of the most popular rhythm and blues and doo wop groups Brown Pelican Rien Fertel, 2022-09-07 In this compelling book Rien Fertel tells the story of humanity's complicated and often brutal relationship with the brown pelican over the past century This beloved bird with the mythically bottomless belly to say nothing of its prodigious pouch has been deemed a living fossil and the most dinosaur like of creatures The pelican adorns the Louisiana state flag serves as a religious icon of sacrifice and stars in the famous parting shot of Jurassic Park but most significantly spotlights our tenuous connection with the environment in which it flies feeds and roosts the coastal United States In 1903 Theodore Roosevelt inaugurated the first national wildlife refuge at Pelican Island Florida in order to rescue the brown pelican among other species from the plume trade Despite such protections the ubiquity of synthetic agents of death most notably DDT in the mid twentieth century sent the brown pelican to the list of endangered species By the mid 1960s not one viable pelican nest remained in all of Louisiana Authorities declared the state bird locally extinct Conservation efforts including an outlandish but well planned birdnapping saved the brown pelican generating one of the great success stories in animal preservation However the brown pelican is once again under threat particularly along Louisiana's coast due to land loss and rising seas For centuries artists and writers have portrayed the pelican as a bird that pierces its breast to feed its young symbolizing saintly piety Today the brown pelican gives itself in other ways sacrificed both by and for the environment as a bellwether bird an indicator species portending potential disasters that await Brown Pelican combines history and first person narrative to complicate deconstruct and reassemble our vision of the bird the natural world

The Miracle Braves of 1914 Bob Brady, Charles F. Faber, Jack V. Morris, Chip Greene, Peter Bjarkman, Wayne McElreavy, Maurice Bouchard, Jim Elfers, Greg Erion, 2014-04-02 Long before the Red Sox Impossible Dream season Boston's now nearly forgotten other team the 1914 Boston Braves performed a baseball miracle that resounds to this very day The Miracle Braves were Boston's first worst to first winners of the World Series Shortly after the turn of the previous century the once mighty Braves had become a perennial member of the National League's second division Preseason pundits didn't believe the 1914 team posed a meaningful threat to John McGraw's powerful New York Giants During the first half of that campaign Boston lived down to such expectations taking up residence in the league's basement Refusing to throw in the towel at the midseason mark their leader the pugnacious George Stallings deftly manipulated his daily lineup and pitching staff to engineer a remarkable second half climb in the standings all the way to first place The team's winning momentum carried into the postseason where the Braves swept Connie Mack's heralded Athletics and claimed the only World Championship ever won by Boston's National League entry And for 100 years the management players and fans of underperforming ball clubs have turned to the Miracle Braves to catch a glimmer of hope that such a midseason turnaround could be repeated Through the collaborative efforts of a band of dedicated members of the Society for American Baseball Research this benchmark accomplishment is richly revealed to the reader in The Miracle Braves of 1914 Boston's Original Worst to First World Series Champions The essence of the miracle is captured through a comprehensive compendium of incisive biographies of the players and other figures associated with the team with additional relevant research pieces on the season After a journey through the pages of this book the die hard baseball fan will better understand why the call to Wait Until Next Year should never be voiced prematurely Includes FOREWORD by Bob Brady THE BRAVES Ted Cather by Jack V Morris Gene Cocreham by Thomas Ayers Wilson Collins by Charlie Weatherby Joe Connolly by Dennis Auger Ensign Cottrell by Peter Cottrell Dick Crutcher by Jerrod Cotosman George Davis by Rory Costello Charlie Deal by Charles F Faber Josh Devore by Peter Gordon Oscar Dugey by Charlie Weatherby Johnny Evers by David Shiner The 1914 Evers Zimmerman Incident and How the Tale Grew Taller Over the Years by Bob Brady The Evers Ejection Record by Mark Sternman Larry Gilbert by Jack V Morris Hank Gowdy by Carol McMains and Frank Ceresi Tommy Griffith by Chip Greene Otto Hess by Gary Hess Tom Hughes by Greg Erion Bill James by David Jones Clarence Kraft by Jon Dunkle Dolf Luque by Peter Bjarkman Les Mann by Maurice Bouchard Rabbit Maranville by Dick Leyden Billy Martin by Bob Joel Jack Martin by Charles F Faber
