The Ottoman Lady A Social History From 1718 To 1918:

The Ottoman Lady Fanny Davis, 1986-05-15 Titan is proud to continue its series of the lavishly reproduced Classic Bible Stories with David the Shepherd King and St Paul the Adventurer The first story drawn by Frank Bellamy tells the story of David the boy who slew a giant and became King of Israel The second drawn by Frank Hampson features St Paul a Jew who converted to Christianity after experiencing a vision on the road to Damascus

Women and Slavery in the Late Ottoman Empire Madeline Zilfi, 2010-03-22 This book examines gender politics through slavery and social regulation in the Ottoman Empire during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries

A Social History of Late Ottoman Women Duygu Köksal, Anastasia Falierou, 2013-10-10 In A Social History of the Late Ottoman Women New Perspectives Duygu Köksal and Anastasia Falierou bring together new research on women of different geographies and communities of the late Ottoman Empire Making use of archives literary works diaries newspapers almanacs art works or cartoons the contributors focus particularly on the ways in which women gained power and exercised agency in late Ottoman Empire and early Republican Turkey The articles convincingly show that women's agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others lives even in the most unexpected areas of their existence The women's activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial unchanged or authentic state

Beyond the Exotic Amira El-Azhary Sonbol, 2021-02-15 Most research has accepted stereotypical images of Muslim women treating their outward manifestations such as veiling as passive and oppressive Muslim women have been depicted as different and by exoticizing orientaling them or Islamic society in general they have been dealt with outside of general women's history and regarded as having little to contribute to the writing of world history or to the life of their sisters worldwide By approaching widely used sources with different questions and methodologies and by using new or little used material with much primary research this book redresses these deficiencies Scholars revisit and reevaluate scripture and scriptural interpretation church records involving non Muslim women of the Arab world archival court records dating from the present back to the Ottoman period and the oral and material culture and its written record including oral history textbooks sufi practices and the politics of dress By deconstructing the past these scholars offer fresh perspectives on women's roles and aspirations in Middle East societies

The Gilded Cage on the Bosphorus Ayşe Osmanoğlu, 2020-05-30 Brothers bound by blood but fated to be enemies Can their Empire survive or will it crumble into myth Istanbul 1903 Since his younger brother usurped the Imperial throne Sultan Murad V has been imprisoned with his family for nearly thirty years The new century heralds immense change Anarchy and revolution threaten the established order Powerful enemies plot the fall of the once mighty Ottoman Empire Only death will bring freedom to the enlightened former sultan But the waters of the Bosphorus run deep assassins lurk in shadows intrigue abounds and scandal in the family threatens to bring destruction of all that he holds dear For over six hundred years the history of the Turks and their vast and powerful Empire has been inextricably linked to the Ottoman dynasty Can this extraordinary family and the Empire they built survive into the new century Set against the magnificent backdrop of Imperial Istanbul The Gilded Cage on the Bosphorus is a spellbinding tale of love duty and sacrifice Evocative and utterly beguiling The Gilded Cage on the Bosphorus is perfect for fans of Colin Falconer Kate Morton and Philippa Gregory A richly woven carpet of a book Historical Novel Society With intelligence and sensitivity Ay e recreates the dramatic story of our family Kenize Mourad author of the international best seller Regards from the Dead Princess The Diffusion of "Small" Western Technologies in the Middle East Uri M. Kupferschmidt, 2023-10-04 In recent years we have become interested in the diffusion of small Western technologies in the countries of the Middle East during the 19th and 20th centuries the era of Imperialism and first globalization We postulated a contrast between small and big technologies Under the latter category we may understand railway systems electricity grids telegraph networks and steam navigation imposed by foreign powers or installed by connected local entrepreneurs But many small Western technologies such as sewing machines typewriters pianos eyeglasses and similar consumer goods which had been developed and manufactured in Europe and America were wanted and willingly acquired by the agency of individual users elsewhere In a few cases however the inventions had to be adapted or were overstepped and even delayed Some were adopted as social markers or status symbols only by elites who could afford them Processes of adoption and diffusion therefore differed according to cultural settings preferences and needs Social and cultural historians and social scientists not only of the Middle East will find in this collection of essays a new approach to the impact of Western technological inventions on the Middle East Modernizing Marriage Kenneth M. Cuno, 2015-04-01 In 1910 when Khedive Abbas II married a second wife surreptitiously the contrast with his openly polygamous grandfather Ismail whose multiple wives and concubines signified his grandeur and masculinity could not have been greater That contrast reflected the spread of new ideals of family life that accompanied the development of Egypt's modern marriage system Modernizing Marriage explores the evolution of marriage and marital relations shedding new light on the social and cultural history of Egypt Family is central to modern Egyptian history and in the ruling court did the political work Indeed the modern state began as a household government in which members of the ruler's household served in the military and civil service Cuno discusses political and sociodemographic changes that affected marriage and family life and the production of a family ideology by modernist intellectuals who identified the family as a site crucial to social improvement and for whom the reform and codification of Muslim family law was a principal aim Throughout Modernizing Marriage Cuno examines Egyptian family history in a comparative and transnational context addressing issues of colonial modernity and colonial knowledge Islamic law and legal reform social history and the history of women and gender The Pioneering Life of Mary Wortley Montagu Jo Willett, 2021-05-26 The first biography to look at the early feminist and radical Mary Wortley Montagu who successfully introduced Britain to the inoculation against the smallpox virus 300 years ago in April 1721 a smallpox epidemic was raging in England Lady Mary Wortley Montagu knew that she could save her 3 year old daughter using the process of inoculation She had witnessed this at first hand in Turkey while she was living there as the wife of the British ambassador She also knew that by inoculating making her daughter the first person protected in the West she would face opposition from doctors politicians and clerics Her courageous action eventually led to the eradication of smallpox and the prevention of millions of deaths But Mary was more than a scientific campaigner She mixed with the greatest politicians writers artists and thinkers of her day She was also an important early feminist writing powerfully and provocatively about the position of women She was best friends with the poet Alexander Pope They collaborated on a series of poems which made her into a household name an It Girl But their friendship turned sour and he used his pen to vilify her publicly Aristocratic by birth Mary chose to elope with Edward Wortley Montagu whom she knew she did not love so as to avoid being forced into marrying someone else In middle age her marriage stale she fell for someone young enough to be her son and unknown to her bisexual She set off on a new life with him abroad When this relationship failed she stayed on in Europe narrowly escaping the coercive control of an Italian con man After twenty two years abroad she returned home to London to die The son in law she had dismissed as a young man had meanwhile become Prime Minister

Okkenhaug,2016-05-18 This work focuses on Anglican mission and women s education in Palestine in the period from 1888 till 1948 As part of the enlightenment movement the project was initiated by British women educational pioneers who influenced women to carry out the creed of academic training for girls also in colonial areas While the educational profile of the pre World War One schools mainly focused on modernisation of the domestic role during the British Mandate the highly educated Anglican women teachers had two aims for their work To create a peaceful multi cultural environment in a society characterised by religious and ethnic strife and secondly to introduce a modern feminine ideal to Christian Muslim and Jewish middle and upper class girls This study contributes to our knowledge of the Anglican missionary project the role of women misionaries educators and the history of Palestine The Courtyard House NasserO. Rabbat,2017-07-05 The courtyard house is one of the most enduring architectural forms transcending regional historical and cultural boundaries Its balance of simple appropriate construction environmental control and social and familial structures continues to engage architects and architectural historians That the courtyard house is still relevant today is indicated through its ability to accommodate continual transformation without losing any of its formal integrity and cultural roots This book presents a series of viewpoints on courtyard houses from different periods and in different regions around the world from the Harem courtyards of the Topkapi Palace and the low cost housing settlements of Protectorate Casablanca to contemporary design strategies for courtyard houses in the arid Gulf region Together the essays illuminate issues of particular relevance in architectural art historical and conservation discourses today Anti-Veiling Campaigns in Turkey Sevgi Adak,2022-02-24

The veiling and unveiling of women have been controversial issues in Turkey since the late Ottoman period It was with the advent of local campaigns against certain veils in the 1930s however that women s dress turned into an issue of national mobilisation in which gender norms would be redefined In this comprehensive analysis of the anti veiling campaigns in interwar Turkey Sevgi Adak casts light onto the historical context within which the meanings of veiling and unveiling in

Turkey were formed By shifting the focus from the high politics of the elite to the implementation of state policies the book situates the anti veiling campaigns as a space where the Kemalist reforms were negotiated compromised and resisted by societal actors Using previously unpublished archival material Adak reveals the intricacies of the Kemalist modernisation process and provides a nuanced reading of the gender order established in the early republic by looking at the various ways women responded to the anti veiling campaigns A major contribution to the literature on the social history of modern Turkey the book provides a complex analysis of these campaigns which goes beyond a simple binary between liberation and oppression

Representations of the Orient in Western Music Nasser Al-Tae, 2017-07-05 This book focuses on the cultural political and religious representations of the Orient in Western music Dr Nasser Al Tae traces several threads in a vast repertoire of musical representations concentrating primarily on the images of violence and sensuality Al Tae argues that these prevailing traits are not only the residual manifestation of the Ottoman threat to Western Europe but also the continuation of a long and complex history of fear and fascination towards the Orient and its Islamic religion In addition to analyses of musical works Al Tae draws on travel accounts paintings biographies and political events to engage with important issues such as gender race and religious differences that may have contributed to the variously complex images of the Orient in Western music The study extends the range of Orientalism to cover eighteenth century Austria nineteenth century Russia and twentieth century America The book challenges those scholars who do not see Orientalism as problematic and tend to ignore the role of musical representations in shaping the image of the Other within a wider interdisciplinary study of knowledge and power

Women in the Middle East Nikki R. Keddie, 2012-08-09 Written by a pioneer in the field of Middle Eastern women's history Women in the Middle East is a concise comprehensive and authoritative history of the lives of the region's women since the rise of Islam Nikki Keddie shows why hostile or apologetic responses are completely inadequate to the diversity and richness of the lives of Middle Eastern women and she provides a unique overview of their past and rapidly changing present The book also includes a brief autobiography that recounts Keddie's political activism as one of the first women in Middle East Studies Positioning women within their individual economic situations identities families and geographies Women in the Middle East examines the experiences of women in the Ottoman Empire and Turkey in Iran and in all the Arab countries Keddie discusses the interaction of a changing Islam with political cultural and socioeconomic developments In doing so she shows that like other major religions Islam incorporated ideas and practices of male superiority but also provoked challenges to them Keddie breaks with notions of Middle Eastern women as faceless victims and assesses their involvement in the rise of modern nationalist socialist and Islamist movements While acknowledging that conservative trends are strong she notes that there have been significant improvements in Middle Eastern women's suffrage education marital choice and health

The Making of Modern Turkey Ahmad Feroz, 2002-11 Textbook providing a thorough assessment of the political social and economic processes which led to the formation of a new

Turkey socio economic change is emphasised throughout Feminists, Islam, and Nation Margot Badran,1996-04-01 The emergence and evolution of Egyptian feminism is an integral but previously untold part of the history of modern Egypt Drawing upon a wide range of women s sources memoirs letters essays journalistic articles fiction treatises and extensive oral histories Margot Badran shows how Egyptian women assumed agency and in so doing subverted and refigured the conventional patriarchal order Unsettling a common claim that feminism is Western and dismantling the alleged opposition between feminism and Islam the book demonstrates how the Egyptian feminist movement in the first half of this century both advanced the nationalist cause and worked within the parameters of Islam Gender, Property, and Law in Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Communities in the Wider Mediterranean 1300-1800 Jutta Sperling,Shona Kelly Wray,2009-10-16 This volume introduces a unique comparative perspective to the complexities of gender relations in Muslim Jewish and Christian communities by examining women s property rights in different societies across the entire medieval and early modern Mediterranean
