Since the 1970s I have pursued three separate but overlapping and sometimes simultaneous careers 1 philosopher writer teacher historian of the long nineteenth century 1789 1914 2 editor translator photographer publisher biographer encyclopedist 3 cataloging librarian rare books and special collections librarian historian of medicine Somehow these three vocations have garnered me some acclaim even an entry in Who's Who in America Each of them has resulted in some published or presented works Because these works have been scattered in a wide variety of venues some of which have gone out of print or have otherwise become generally unavailable and of course with the oral presentations being gone as soon as they are given I have thought it wise to select epitomize and bring them together in one place here Thus what follows in these volumes is what I consider to be the most important of my shorter works      The Owl of Minerva Hegel Society of America, Villanova University. Philosophy Department, Florida State University, 1969      The Owl of Minerva James Laughlin, 1987 These poems including those in Laughlin's inimitable American French include reveries and meditations political and social observations satires and his unique brand of interlingual echoing they are light without being trivial serious without growing weighty      The Women are Up to Something Benjamin J. Bruxvoort Lipscomb, 2021 This the story of four philosophers Elizabeth Anscombe Philippa Foot Mary Midgley and Iris Murdoch who helped shape the intellectual history of the 20th century reviving the ethical imagination of their time and ours The Second World War gave these four women their chance as they pursued roles formerly reserved for men But they succeeded because of their formidable intelligence and because of who they were a combative Catholic convert who never cared whom she offended her unlikely best friend an atheist who grew up in a world of class and manners a woman who spent a decade and a half raising her boys publishing the first of her sixteen books at almost 60 and a mystical novelist who gradually drifted away from the academy This is a book for those interested in these vivid characters in the first school of women philosophers or in alternative ways of thinking about how to live      Ruminations: Selected Philosophical, Historical, and Ideological Papers, Volume 1, Part 2. The Finite Eric v.d. Luft, 2020-09-13

Avenging the Owl Melissa Hart,2016-04-05 A long time ago in a galaxy far far away Han Solo avenged the destruction of an innocent planet by helping Luke Skywalker blow up the Death Star Han walked away with a gold medal and the love of his life But when Solo Hahn named in honor of the beloved action hero tries to avenge the death of his gray and white kitten he gets eight months of community service Eight months of working at the local raptor center helping owls his now sworn enemies For the first time in his life Solo is labeled a troubled kid an at risk youth He d always gotten good grades had good friends and gotten along with his parents He used to volunteer to read Reader s Digest to old people at the retirement home next door and his favorite thing in the whole wide world was to surf He wrote screenplays for fun But when his parents uproot him and move the family from California to backwoods Oregon Solo starts to lose track of the person he was Everything is upside down and he finds himself dealing with things way beyond his understanding He s the new kid in town and he s got a bad reputation The question is What will he do next This is a story about staying true to yourself when things get tough Solo has every reason to lash out but he ultimately needs to find a way to cope Avenging the Owl deals with the difficult issues of suicide and depression but more than anything it captures the powerlessness of being a kid It won t be easy but the wild beauty of Oregon its cold empty beaches and captivating wildlife may be just what Solo and his family need to help them start over

The Yale Literary Magazine ,1894 Ethical Violence Carlo Bordoni,2023-10-16 Human civilization is founded on ethical principles norms of behaviour that have accumulated over time

Perhaps the oldest of ethical principles is the rejection of violence which includes the respect for life and for the physical and psychological integrity of others But in some circumstances violence itself can be regarded as ethical for example when it is used by states claiming to act in self defence In these circumstances the need to defend oneself against an enemy can transform war from an unacceptable act into a necessary socially shared and morally sanctioned choice And it is when violence becomes ethical that we must begin to fear for our future In the wake of the pandemic we are witnessing the growing prevalence of aggression and emotionality in social and political life We find ourselves living in an increasingly impatient and insecure society which is sceptical of scientific thought and which takes refuge in the irrational The decline of rationality and the growing prevalence of violence are increasingly common features of a society that has lost touch with the great Enlightenment narrative We need argues Bordoni to rediscover the rationality we have lost and recuperate the positive side of technology
