The Palace Of The Marquis Of Salamanca:

The Palace of the Marquis of Salamanca, 1994 Vine and Olive Oliver Optic, 2018-05-23 Reproduction of the original Vine and Olive by Oliver Optic Iberian reminiscences Antonio Gallenga, 1883 Portrait of a young nobleman: a knight of the Order of Calatrava Fernando Montesinos, 2017-11-06 Vine and Olive, Or, Young America in Spain and Portugal Oliver Optic, 1876 Joaquín Sorolla Portraits 2 Cristina Berna, Eric Thomsen, 2024-08-02 Joaquín Sorolla born in Valencia 1863 died in Cercedilla 1923 is one of the most successful Spanish painters ever He was a genius in capturing the essence of the scene he was painting In Joaquín Sorolla Portraits 2 1900 1910 Sorolla becomes a celebrated portrait painter Following the success of his one man exhibitions in France 1906 to a lesser degree Germany 1907 England 1908 but especially the USA 1909 portrait commissions flooded in But even before Paris Sorolla produced a large number of portraits Many of his most important sitters were male but Sorolla did exquisite female portraits as well Among his most successful portraits were those of female sitters whom he invariably imbued with an elegance and beauty that rank them alongside the portraits of his contemporaries Giovanni Boldini Anders Zorn and John Singer Sargent Residential Capitalism Javier Moreno Zacarés, 2024-04-23 Over the last decade Spain has become an emblem of the contradictory relationship between capitalism and housing During the house price boom of the 2000s Spain built homes on an unprecedented scale with output levels that overshadowed those of every major European economy Nevertheless when the fortunes of real estate markets turned a wave of repossessions ensued and a massive number of households were thrown out into the street as a sizeable portion of the housing stock was lying vacant In turn the implosion of Spanish residential capitalism triggered an intense wave of unrest that has come to shape a decade of political turmoil This book uses the Spanish case to bring to light and theorise the workings of residential capitalism The author traces the evolution of residential provision from the nineteenth century to the present situating the transformation of the housing market in a context of ongoing social change and conflict The book shows how the present needs to be understood by looking at the historical process through which residential provision became subsumed under the logic of capitalist accumulation but also at a long genealogy of struggles around urbanisation and housing the outcomes of which remain crystallised in Spain's urban institutions The author reveals how both residential capitalist development and urban social conflict have constituted each another casting light on the historical relationship between housing crises urban unrest and the evolution of real estate markets The book develops a historicist framework to understand residential capitalism an important contribution for an age in which real estate markets have come to determine the rhythms of global capital Addressing key issues and debates in the field including the financialisation of housing the politics of scale and urban entrepreneurialism the political economy of the Eurozone and the history of capitalist development this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of political economy as well as those engaged in crossover fields such as housing studies urban geography or financial geography Guide to Spain & Portugal Henry

O'Shea,1868 A hand-book for travellers in Spain [by R. Ford. 1st] -9th ed Richard Ford,1878 An Historical Essay on Modern Spain Richard Herr,1974-11-20 More political than cultural in its emphasis this enormously detailed scholarly yet thoroughly readable book about modern Spain under Franco should fascinate any reader curious to know what changes have been wrought in that country in the past 30 years Professor Herr UCLA and Berkeley has researched painstakingly and drawn a clear authentic and meaningful portrait of Spain today as it is rapidly being transformed from an agrarian society to one now predominantly industrial Publishers Weekly Professor Herr is also seeking the origins of modern Spain his history is Aristotelian in that the end dominates the process He seeks these origins in the later eighteenth century when the traditional order was perceived to be a bar to progress A group of civil servants influenced by the European Enlightenment sought to bring Spain into Europe believing that industrial progress education and agrarian reform would do the trick but all their reforms were opposed by Catholic traditionalists Hence the division into the two Spains Yet it is not the old crude version of two Spains so often served up to explain everything from the failure of university reform to the Civil War that Professor Herr plumps for He sees the course of Spanish history explained by the rise and modification of the Moderado oligarchy he does throw out a lifeline in a sea of complexities and gives us the best short account of Franco Spain Spectator This is a work of substantial interest and value which must be recommended as a well balanced readable and scholarly introduction to a subject which has never ceased to be controversial and is still in the process of reinterpretation commands a high place among the general histories of Spain Journal of Modern History The Sixteenth Century Italian Paintings National Gallery (Great Britain),Nicholas Penny,2004 This highly anticipated catalogue of sixteenth century paintings from the distinguished collection of the National Gallery in London encompasses artists who were active in Bergamo Brescia and Cremona cities characterized as much by the artistic interaction between them as by the influence of Venice The artists include such well known names as Lorenzo Lotto Moretto and Moroni along with less familiar ones such as Bartolomeo Veneto and Callisto Piazza For each of the paintings distinguished scholar and curator Nicholas Penny provides information about technique and materials conservation and condition and subject and iconography An account of the painting's original patronage is followed by a discussion of changing tastes interpretation and how the picture was esteemed or neglected over the centuries One third of the paintings catalogued here are portraits and entries include fascinating sections on contemporary dress furnishings and accessories An appendix provides an illuminating account of some of the great collectors and collections of the past A Handbook for Travellers in Spain John Murray (Firm),Richard Ford,1882 A Handbook for Travellers in Spain Richard Ford,1878 Cultural Heritage and Slavery Stephan Conermann,Claudia Rauhut,Ulrike Schmieder,Michael Zeuske,2023-11-20 In the recent cultural heritage boom community based and national identity projects are intertwined with interest in cultural tourism and sites of the memory of enslavement Questions of historical guilt and present responsibility have become a source of social conflict particularly in multicultural societies with an enslaving past

This became apparent in the context of the Black Lives Matter movement in 2020 when statues of enslavers and colonizers were toppled controversial debates about streets and places named after them re ignited and the European Union apologized for slavery after the racist murder of George Floyd Related debates focus on museums on artworks acquired unjustly in societies under colonial rule the question of whether and how museums should narrate the hidden past of enslavement and colonialism including their own colonial origins with respect to narratives about presumed European supremacy and the need to establish new monuments for the enslaved their resistance and abolitionists of African descent In this volume we address this dissonant cultural heritage in Europe with a strong focus on the tangible remains of enslavement in the Atlantic space in the continent This may concern for instance the residences of royal noble and bourgeois enslavers charitable and cultural institutions universities banks and insurance companies financed by the traders and owners of enslaved Africans merchants who dealt in sugar coffee and cotton and the owners of factories who profited from exports to the African and Caribbean markets related to Atlantic slavery
