EDUCATION Education is a life long learning process of an individual for a meaningful life in the world Only with the help of education the man may be a civilized and cultured individual Different educationists interpreted the term Education differently Tagore remarks Education means entering the mind to find out that ultimate truth which emancipates us from the bondage of the dust and gives us the wealth not of things but of inner light not of the power but of love making this truth its own and giving expression to it Conenius says All those who are born as human beings need education because they are destined to be real men not wild beasts dull animals and clumps of wood Regunath Safaya 1994 P 5 John Dewey defines Education is the process of living through a continuous reconstruction of experiences It is the development of all those capacities in the individual which will enable him to control his environment and fulfill his responsibilities Regunath Safaya 1994 P 5

The Dynamics of Parental Pressure and Academic Achievement (A Mixed-Methods Study in Mumbai High Schools) KHRITISH SWARGIARY,2024-02-01 This mixed methods study investigates the relationship between parental pressure and academic achievement among middle and high school students in Mumbai India Conducted between January and June 2023 the study sampled 500 students 250 males and 250 females from government aided and private schools using stratified random sampling Quantitative data were collected via standardized questionnaires and analyzed using descriptive statistics correlation and regression models while qualitative insights were drawn from in depth interviews and open ended survey responses The findings highlight a spectrum of parental pressure experiences revealing its dual role as a motivator and stressor Female students exhibited slightly higher GPAs average 3 35 compared to males average 3 27 indicating nuanced gender specific academic outcomes Moderating factors such as motivation self esteem and coping strategies were critical in shaping academic performance Supportive parental communication and effective coping mechanisms mitigated stress and bolstered scholastic success whereas authoritarian parenting styles correlated with diminished self esteem and maladaptive behaviors These results underscore the need for balanced parental involvement and tailored interventions to foster academic achievement and psychological well being Recommendations for creating supportive academic environments are discussed Keywords Parental pressure academic achievement gender dynamics coping strategies student well being Cultural Capital and Parental Involvement Siu-hang Kong,2023-01-12 This book uses Pierre Bourdieu s cultural capital model as a theoretical framework for exploring how students in Beijing and Hong Kong perceive parental influences their parents cultural capital and support on their participation in musical activities By studying students perceptions of their parents cultural capital and support for their musical activities this book revisits the applicability of Bourdieu s cultural capital model in the contemporary Chinese context and reveals how inequality in terms of parental cultural capital governs parents support and influences the intergenerational transmission of cultural capital which in turn contributes to inequality in terms of students cultural capital

Parental Involvement in Childhood Education Garry Hornby,2011-04-07 Parental participation has long been recognized as a positive factor in children s education Research consistently shows that parents contributions to their children s education lead to improvements in their academic and behavioral outcomes from elementary through middle and secondary school Recognizing the critical role of school psychologists in this equation Parental Involvement in Childhood Education clearly sets out an evidence based rationale and blueprint for building parental involvement and faculty awareness The author s starting point is the gap between the ideals found in the literature and the reality of parental involvement in schools An ecological analysis identifies professional institutional and societal factors that keep schools and parents distant Methods for evaluating parental involvement are detailed as is a model for developing and maintaining strong parental relationships at the instructor school and education system level with an emphasis on flexible communication and greater understanding of parents needs This empirically sound coverage offers readers A detailed understanding of obstacles to parental involvement An evidence based model for parental participation A three nation study of parental involvement practices in schools Guidelines for implementing parental involvement activities and initiatives A review of effective communication strategies with parents Analysis of key interpersonal skills for effective work with parents Parental Involvement in Childhood Education is essential reading for practitioners and researchers in school psychology and counseling social work and educational psychology whether they work directly with schools or in providing training for teachers and other professionals who work with children and their parents

Parental Engagement and Early Childhood Education Around the World Susanne Garvis,Sivanes Phillipson,Heidi Harju-Luukkainen,Alicja Renata Sadownik,2021-12-23 Exploring the importance of parental engagement in early childhood education this book delves into research and practices in 25 countries to bring students researchers teachers and policy makers insights into working families around the world The incorporation and consideration of parental engagement and involvement in early childhood education are a new phenomenon to many countries Yet increasing research recognises the importance of parental engagement and involvement in early childhood education services and the role both parents and teachers play to support children s learning and development Using a range of materials from curriculum to policy documents Garvis et al demonstrate differences in practices and terminologies pertaining to the topic and provide an international perspective on the importance of parental involvement and engagement in early childhood education services The content covers a range of countries as well as countries beyond an Anglo Saxon perspective The different policy settings across these countries highlight how countries work with and involve parents differently which is useful for jurisdictions where early childhood education is a developing aspect of a country's education system. Looking at cultural influences, partnership approaches, parental collaboration, institutional dominance, and child involvement in parent meetings, the content offers readers real understanding of parental engagement and involvement in different settings. The readership includes students in early childhood education and researchers, teachers, policy makers, and general members of the public interested in parental engagement or involvement in early childhood education across the globe.
