Blain Brown

The Patch Of Blue:

The Disappearance of the Soul and the Turn Against Metaphysics Mark Textor, 2021 Textor reveals the roots of analytic philosophy in a great age of Austro German philosophy in the late 19th and early 20th centuries He introduces Brentano Mach and other key figures and traces the development of the landmark ideas that there can be psychology without a soul and that metaphysics lies beyond the limits of knowledge

Engaging Buddhism Jay L. Garfield, 2015 Articulating the basic metaphysical framework common to Buddhist traditions this book explores questions in metaphysics the philosophy of mind phenomenology epistemology the philosophy of language and ethics as they are addressed in a variety of Asian Buddhist traditions Focusing on philosophical problems in each case the connections between Buddhist and contemporary Western debates are examined as are the distinctive contributions the Buddhist tradition can make to Western discussions

The Photography of Colored Objects Charles Edward Kenneth Mees, 1928

Reflections on Reality Jeffrey Hopkins, 2007

This is the second volume in Jeffrey Hopkins valuable series on the Mind Only School of Buddhism and a focal description of it in Dzong Ka ba s The Essence of Eloquence Dzong Ka ba 1357-1419 is generally regarded as one of the greatest Tibetan philosophers and his Mind Only discourse on emptiness is considered a landmark in Buddhist philosophy In Volume I Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism Hopkins provided a translation of the introduction and the section on the Mind Only School in The Essence of Eloquence The present volume places this enigmatic and influential exposition in its historical and philosophical contexts Reflections on Reality conveys the intellectual vibrancy of the different cultural interpretations of this text and expands the key philosophical issues it addresses Hopkins one of the leading scholarly voices in Tibetan studies begins this volume with two introductory chapters contextualizing Tibetan scholarship in general He then goes on to discuss in detail the religious significance of the central topic of the three natures in the Mind Only School He also considers various views on the status of reality including the doctrine of other emptiness promulgated by the fourteenth century Jo nang savant Shay rap gyel tsen Presenting accurate and insightful translations of a large amount of material that has never been available in English before he shows how these topics have been debated among scholars in Tibet over six centuries Comparing these with presentations in Europe Japan and the United States today he created a lively conversation between normally disparate voices

Ocean of Reasoning Tsong khapa, 2006-04-20 Tsong kha pa 14th century is arguably the most important and influential philosopher in Tibetan history An Ocean of Reasoning is the most extensive and perhaps the deepest extant commentary on Nagarjuna s Mulamadhyamakakarika Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way and it can be argued that it is impossible to discuss Nagarjuna s work in an informed way without consulting it It discusses alternative readings of the text and prior commentaries and provides a detailed exegesis constituting a systematic presentation of Madhyamaka Buddhist philosophy Despite its central importance however of Tsong kha pa s three most important texts only An Ocean of Reasoning remains untranslated perhaps because it is both philosophically and linguistically challenging demanding a rare combination of abilities on the part of a translator Jay Garfield and Ngawang Samten bring the requisite skills to this difficult task combining between them expertise in Western and Indian philosophy and fluency in Tibetan Sanskrit and English The resulting translation of this important text will not only be a landmark contribution to the scholarship of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism but will serve as a valuable companion volume to Jay Garfield's highly successful translation of The Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way Journal of the British Astronomical Association, 1919

village of Patience Once committed to his destiny he is faced with countless obstacles With his determination and the support of family friends an old widow a harlot a student a knight a seer and most important the Great King Matthew takes on a seemingly impossible mission and becomes the most celebrated and honored Royal Messenger in the realm

Wordsworthshire Eric Sutherland Robertson, 1911 The Triangle of Representation Christopher

Prendergast, 2000-09-26 Moving deftly among literary and visual arts as well as the modern critical canon Christopher Prendergast's book explores the meaning and value of representation as both a philosophical challenge What does it mean to create an image that stands for something absent and a political issue Who has the right to represent whom The Triangle of Representation raises a range of theoretical historical and aesthetic questions and offers subtle readings of such cultural critics as Raymond Williams Paul de Man Edward Said Walter Benjamin and Hélène Cixous in addition to penetrating investigations of visual artists like Gros Ingres and Matisse and significant insights into Proust and the onus of translating him Above all Prendergast's work is a striking display of how a firm grounding in theory is essential for the exploration of art and literature
