The Path of Least Resistance Ken Hultman,1979-01

Fatal Consumption Robert F. Woollard,Aleck S. Ostry,2000

Based on their four year interdisciplinary study of British Columbia s Lower Fraser Basin scholars from the various fields that contribute to environmental science ask why people claim to value sustainability while acting in an unsustainable fashion and how to reduce consumption drastically and move toward a sustainable social system when society is specifically based on consumption They analyze policy and propose tools for those charged with making decisions The analysis though specific in focus should be applicable to most North American urban areas and might interest urban planners policy makers and people interested in the link between health and a sustainable society Distributed in the US by Raincoast Books Canadian card order number C00 910443 7 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Decision Making for Student Success Benjamin L. Castleman,Saul Schwartz,Sandy Baum,2015-03-12 Each year many students with affordable college options and the academic skills needed to succeed do not enroll at all enroll at institutions where they are not well positioned for success or drop out of college before earning a credential Efforts to address these challenges have included changes in financial aid policy increased availability of information and enhanced academic support This volume argues that the efficacy of these strategies can be improved by taking account of contemporary research on how students make choices In Decision Making for Student Success scholars from the fields of behavioral economics education and public policy explore contemporary research on decision making and highlight behavioral insights that can improve postsecondary access and success This exciting volume will provide scholars researchers and higher education administrators with valuable perspectives and low cost strategies that they can employ to improve outcomes for underserved populations      Resources in Education ,2000-10      Development, Humanitarian Aid, and Social Welfare Cornelia C. Walther,2020-04-27 This book examines how human behavior is shaped by our aspirations emotions thoughts and sensations and conversely how the experiences that result from our behavior impact ourselves others and the planet Based on an analysis of the constant interplay between these four layers it offers practical solutions to systematically induce sustainable social change dynamics It shows why change in addition to economic and political transformation at the macro level begins with mind shifts at the micro level Hereby it establishes the missing link between investments in personal empowerment and collective welfare A novel theoretical paradigm is the foundation of this book which is anchored in the perspective of an ongoing body mind heart soul connection Based on the premise that an equitable society is to the benefit of everyone it is argued that efforts made for others have benefits at three levels for the individual who acts the one who has been acted for and for society     Universal Principles of Design, Revised and Updated William Lidwell,Kritina Holden,Jill Butler,2010
