Anderson, 2002-06-24 Just as he did in his first book Spider's Night on the Boom Gary Anderson takes aim at the both the heart strings and the funny bone in this new collection of stories from one of the Midwest's premiere humorists With his latest batch of stories Anderson turns his unique blend of humor and poignancy to subjects as diverse as the importance of keeping promises to children the incredible Don't Boil Over diet the intricacies of Quantum Fishing and how to get free if you ever find yourself hanging upside down by a boot heel from the top of an eight foot chain link fence The laughter and tears will flow as Anderson gently guides you through these forty tales of the silly and sublime

No Smooshing! Gary Anderson, 2004 Heartland Journal, 1983 In the Middle of the Middle West Becky Bradway, 2003-11-06 The 42 essays in this collection take their inspiration from the Midwest not just from its physical terrain but from its emotional terrain as well They come from writers of diverse backgrounds poets novelists filmmakers and journalists some who came and stayed some who came and left and some who were born and raised in this place The essays revolve generally around issues of conflict between place and identity and the theme of diversity be it religious sexual racial artistic cultural occupational or geographical runs throughout Writers featured in this collection include Maxine Chernoff Stuart Dybek Michael Martone Cris Mazza James McManus Scott Russell Sanders Mary Swander and many others of national reputation Mother Jones Magazine, 1992-03 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues How the World Breaks Stan Cox, Paul Cox, 2016-07-12 We've always lived on a dangerous planet but its disasters aren't what they used to be How the World Breaks gives us a breathtaking new view of crisis and recovery on the unstable landscapes of the Earth's hazard zones Father and son authors Stan and Paul Cox take us to the explosive fire fronts of overheated Australia the future lost city of Miami the fights over whether and how to fortify New York City in the wake of Sandy the Indonesian mud volcano triggered by natural gas drilling and other communities that are reimagining their lives after quakes superstorms tornadoes and landslides In the very decade when we should be rushing to heal the atmosphere and address the enormous inequalities of risk a strange idea has taken hold of global disaster policy resilience Its proponents say that threatened communities must simply learn the art of resilience adapt to risk and thereby survive This doctrine obscures the human hand in creating disasters and requires the planet's most beleaguered people to absorb the rush of floodwaters and the crush of landslides freeing the world economy to go on undisturbed The Coxes great contribution is to pull the disaster debate out of the realm of theory and into the muck and ash of the world's broken places There we learn that change is more than mere adaptation and life is more than mere survival Ultimately How the World Breaks reveals why unless we address the social ecological and economic roots of disaster millions more people every year will find themselves spiraling into misery It is essential reading for our time Media Review Digest C.
