The Gospel According to the Trinity Nicholas S. Perez, 2025-04-22 The gospel begins with God God exists eternally as Father Son and Holy Spirit How does what we believe about the Trinity impact the redemption of people before time began in time all the way to when time is no more In The Gospel According to Trinity Nicholas S Perez takes readers from eternity to eternity exploring the work of the triune God in redeeming people While considering arguments from within his own ecclesiastical setting the Stone Campbell Movement he challenges understandings of the outworking of redemption that do not maintain Trinitarian harmony and agreement between the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit The result is a more consistent view of the gospel within a Trinitarian framework

God Has Come, He Is King The Church of Almighty God, Almighty God Christ of the last days has expressed a variety of truths uncovered every truth and mystery in the Bible and revealed to mankind the inside story of the three stages of God's work the mystery of God becoming flesh and God's work of judgment in the last days etc This testifies that Almighty God is the return of the Lord Jesus and that He is the appearance of God in the last days

Gregory of Nazianzus on the Trinity and the Knowledge of God Christopher A. Beeley, 2008-06-27 Gregory of Nazianzus a 4th century bishop of Constantinople receives relatively little attention from modern Western scholars yet he is one of the most influential theologians in the history of Christian doctrine As an advocate for the conceptual understanding of the Trinity Gregory set precedents for the way his fellow and future Christians would perceive and worship God Christopher A Beeley presents the first comprehensive study in modern Western scholarship of Gregory's doctrine of the Trinity in the full range of his theological and practical vision of the Christian life

Dogmatic Ecclesiology : Volume 1 Tom Greggs, 2019-11-05 Ecclesiology is a key issue for the present age of church history This groundbreaking work by one of today's leading theologians offers a major Protestant ecclesiology for the church catholic This volume the first of three considers the priesthood of the church in light of the priesthood of Christ Tom Greggs shows the connection between Christ s work as high priest and the universal church s role in salvation All together the three volumes will offer a major statement on the doctrine of the church for Christians from a variety of backgrounds A Multi-Intentioned View of the Extent of the Atonement Gary L. Shultz Jr.,2014-01-07

Christians strongly disagree about the extent of the atonement Some believe that the atonement only extends to the elect those whom God chose to save before the foundation of the world Others believe the atonement is unlimited that Jesus died for all people whether they ever believe in him or not Despite the differences in these two traditional understandings they share one thing in common both believe that Jesus died for a single intended purpose But what if God s intentions in the atonement are multiple not single The Bible teaches exactly this that Jesus died both to pay for the sins of all people and to secure the salvation of those God chose to believe in him before time began This book explains and defends a multi intentioned view of the extent of the atonement asserting that this view does the best job of understanding all of what the Bible says about the extent of the atonement is more theologically comprehensive than the traditional views and has the best potential for consensus on who exactly Jesus Christ died for when he was crucified for our sins Rose Book of Bible Charts Rose Publishing (Torrance, Calif.),2008 More than 230 pages of reproducible Bible charts in one book Buying these charts separately would cost 130 You may reproduce up to 300 copies of any chart free of charge for your own classroom Full color contains most Rose material published since 2005 Hardcover with a spine covering a spiral binding 233 pages

Without Absolutes, God Is Not God Ronald A Train,2013-01-12 Absolutes As a Christian it is foundational I believe to hold to absolutes For example a Christian should have absolutes about Gods ontology the principle of being absolutes about theology the study of God absolutes about Christology the study of Christ and absolutes about pneumatology the study of the Holy Spirit Each of the foregoing absolutes I believe impact upon how one constructs a world view and how one considers the wider implications of Gods kingdom work hence why I have titled this collection of essays Without absolutes God is not God I guess the reader will be asking him or herself why is there a requirement to hold to absolutes The need for absolutes is not complex In reality the argument determines whether one is a believer or non believer in the triune God A believer will weigh whether God revelationally speaks into this world generally and specifically A non believer will object to such a proposition and as a consequence leave him or herself open to other belief systems To perhaps put it another way a non believer is faced with the choice of deciding whether God is a reality or whether God is a creation of human imagination Decision making then is crucial when accepting the triune God and his work Does one make a decision to believe in God empirically or does one make a decision to believe in God from a position of faith It is my view that God cannot be known empirically i e by trial or experience but rather he can only be known by faith However it depends on how we define faith Those who accept other belief systems would argue that they too have a faith or a belief in some god or person In the Christian context however faith is an action based on the accepted evidence In other words if one accepts that the written word of God is substantially true 2

Peter 1 20 21 and that the Word of God Jesus of Nazareth is who he is recorded as being or is who he claims to be John 1 1 5 14 6 7 then faith is given substance But I would go further and argue that authentic faith is derived from a spiritual encounter with God which then enables the recipients faith response to be one which is prompted or ignited by God My argument is supported from Scripture 1 Corinthians 12 9 Ephesians 2 8 9 and from personal experience Both of the foregoing references I suggest argue that faith is a gift which has its origin in God Hence faith is not only prompted by God but also sustained by him The analysis of such faith is that it is revelatory and constitutes an utter reliance on who God is and why he exists Revelatory Faith Evangelicals argue that faith is a gift from God However this argument is treated with caution by others Existentialism suggests that faith is made possible and so granted by the gracious approach and self disclosure of being Interestingly at this point there is no great variance between the latter perspective and Martin Luther who argued that faith originates with or is at least aroused by God Contemplating the third article of the Apostles Creed he wrote I believe that I cannot of my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord or come to him But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel enlightened me with His gifts sanctified and kept me in the true faith Modernists also argue that faith constitutes a persons response but only after having been drawn to Gods work of salvation This argument suggests faith to be an a priori act of God an act that prompts recognition that in the Christ God is endeavouring to share his own life This arousal of faith then affects worship praise and prayer and the practise of Christian discipleship The same argument suggests further that the prior love of God and the response of love that it generates are what shape a persons Christian faith Biblical support for these theological reflections is found in Ephesians

The Spirit and Relational Anthropology in Paul Samuel D. Ferguson, 2020-08-28 La 4e de couverture indique For the Apostle Paul humans do not identify and act on their own but are constituted in part by relationships Samuel D Ferguson shows that according to Paul the work of the Holy Spirit further attests to this as Christians realize their new life through Spirit created relationships of sonship and communal interdependence
