Collins,Margo Natalie Crawford,2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s a cadre of poets playwrights visual artists musicians and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art This charged chapter in the history of African American culture which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well known figures such as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez Betye Saar Jeff Donaldson and Haki Madhubuti In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its critique Hip Hop's Inheritance

Reiland Rabaka,2011-01-01 Hip Hop s Inheritance arguably offers the first book length treatment of what hip hop culture has literally inherited from the Harlem Renaissance the Black Arts movement the Feminist Art movement and 1980s and 1990s postmodern aesthetics By comparing and contrasting the major motifs of the aforementioned cultural aesthetic traditions with those of hip hop culture all the while critically exploring the origins and evolution of black popular culture from antebellum America through to Obama's America Hip Hop's Inheritance demonstrates that the hip hop generation is not the first generation of young black and white folk preoccupied with spirituality and sexuality race and religion entertainment and athletics or ghetto culture and bourgeois culture Taking interdisciplinarity and intersectionality seriously Hip Hop's Inheritance employs the epistemologies and methodologies from a wide range of academic and organic intellectual activist communities in its efforts to advance an intellectual history and critical theory of hip hop culture Drawing from academic and organic intellectual activist communities as diverse as African American studies and women's studies postcolonial studies and sexuality studies history and philosophy politics and economics and sociology and ethnomusicology Hip Hop's Inheritance calls into question one dimensional and monodisciplinary interpretations or rather misinterpretations of a multidimensional and multivalent form of popular culture that has increasingly come to include cultural criticism social commentary and political analysis

Water and African American Memory Anissa J. Wardi, 2025-03-25 While there is no lack of scholarship on the trans Atlantic voyage and the Middle Passage as tropes in African diasporic writing to date there has not been a comprehensive analysis of bodies of water in African American literature and culture In Water and African American Memory Anissa Wardi offers the first sustained treatise on watercourses in the African American expressive tradition Her holistic approach especially highlights the ways that water acts not only as a metaphorical site of trauma memory and healing but also as a material site Using the trans Atlantic voyage as a starting point and ending with a discussion of Hurricane Katrina this pioneering ecocritical study delves deeply into the environmental dimension of African American writing Beyond proposing a new theoretical map for conceptualizing the African Diaspora Wardi offers a series of engaging and original close readings of major literary filmic and blues texts including the works of Toni Morrison Ntozake Shange Julie Dash Henry Dumas and Kasi Lemmons constant recycling optimistically trying to overcome its own decadence in the 21st century Recycling Culture's addresses from a variety of perspectives this strategy analyzing not only a wide range of texts but also of cultural practices As the volume shows culture thrives on a permanent state of flux borrowing materials for its own survival wherever they are found and always favouring hybridity This refers not only to how texts cross genre and medium boundaries but also to how identities and the very idea of culture grow out of recycling what is at hand both synchronically and diachronically Divided in two sections Part I Recycling the Book and the Screen and Part II Recycling Identity Consumption and History the twenty essays offered here are the work of an international group of scholars dealing with different linguistic and geographical environments A primary aim of the volume is breaking away with the compartmentalisation of Cultural Studies into non communicating linguistic domains to offer an eclectic engaging mixture of approaches This is the twelfth monographic volume of the series Culture Power edited by members of the permanent seminar on Cultural Studies Culture Power which has organised an international yearly conference since 1995 Recycling Culture's is the latest in the series of Culture and Power books to come out of Spain It features essays not only from many of the most distinguished cultural studies scholars on the Iberian Peninsular but many from beyond its borders What makes this volume so stimulating relevant and exiting is that the contributors range across an impressive assortment of contexts of and for recycling The book s thematic base is impressive taking in as it does the relevance of recycling history identity and a multitude of popular texts written and audio visual All contributions are theoretically informed and the authors consider subjects from comic book heroes James Bond and Clockwork Orange to African Carribbean women Australian national myth and mobile phones The contributors and editor should be congratulated on producing a theoretically coherent challenging and important intervention into contemporary cultural studies Dr David Walton Senior Lecturer in Cultural Studies at the Univerisity of Murcia Spain author Introducing Cultural Studies Learning Through Practice Sage 2008 Jackie Warren-Moore Greatest Hits Jackie
